THE MIAA DOUBLEHEADER: Truman State University Bulldogs (Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association/NCAA Division II) vs. Washburn University Lady Blues

DATE/TIME: April 19, 2003/1 p.m.
FIELD: Truman Softball Field
LOCATION: Kirksville, Mo.

TRUMAN (27-10, 10-0 MIAA): The Bulldogs are riding a nine-game winning streak and are the only undefeated team left in the MIAA at 10-0. They picked up four more MIAA wins over the weekend, beating Missouri Southern 2-0 and 6-1 and handing Pittsburg State 6-3 and 3-2 losses. Yesterday, the ‘Dogs entertained Missouri Western and came away with a pair of 6-0 wins. Truman heads to St. Louis for a non-conference double dip at Missouri-St. Louis on Wednesday before entertaining MIAA foes Emporia State and Washburn this weekend. WU is currently sitting just behind Northwest Missouri in third in the MIAA standings with a 7-3 mark, is tied with the Bulldogs with a 27-10 record and was ranked third in the first North Central region rankings. Truman was fifth in the first regional poll, but could move up when the new ratings come out tomorrow.

ECONOMON NAMED MIAA CO-HITTER OF THE WEEK: Junior all-America shortstop Elizabeth Economon (St. Louis/Notre Dame) was named an MIAA hitter of the week after batting .611 in helping the ‘Dogs go 6-0 last week. She was 11-of-18 for the week with a home run, six RBIs and six runs. Perhaps her best outing came at Lincoln when she went 6-of-8 in a doubleheaders with two doubles, four RBIs, two solen bases and three runs scored.

Missouri Southern denied Buford a shutout in the second game after scoring an unearned run in the first inning. The Bulldogs scored four runs in the third and one each in the fifth and seventh for the 6-1 win. Strubel put her first ball of the year over the fence to lead off the fifth inning and had two hits, along with Wedemeier, for the game. Buford struck out three batters and scattered four hits to improve to 7-4 on the year.

VS. MISSOURI WESTERN: In the first inning, Truman scored off of a double by Economon and hits by Ortwerth and Strubel. Mueller singled in the second inning to score an unearned run by Krystl Brown and Cepicky got her first triple of the season to send Mueller home.

Economon hit her first of two home runs for the day in the fifth inning, scoring two runs. She was 2-for-3 while five other Bulldogs had hits. Junior Breanna Wonderly (Conception, Mo./Jefferson) garnered her seventh win of the season after striking out seven batters and giving up just three hits for her fourth shutout of the season.

In game two, Cepicky and Ortwerth walked to lead off the first inning and hit a three-run double. Economon led off the bottom of the sixth with a homer and Wedemeier scored on a base hit by Brown for the second 6-0 win of the day. Ortwerth, Wedemeier, Kessler and Brown all had two hits and Economon was 3-for-4.

Britni Buford went to 9-4 on the year by giving up no earned runs and striking out six batters. Buford threw a complete game, giving up no earned runs and striking out seven batters. Giving up just two hits and walking one. She also scored Economon's game-winning single.

A BAND OF THIEVES ... A total of 10 Bulldogs have stolen a base this season, with 20-of-26 times. Her now 30 career stolen bases for the season and are closing in on catching Truman career record-holder Stephanie Schlegel who stole 65 bases from 1997-2000.

As a team, the Bulldogs have stolen 82 bases for the season and are closing in on the school record of 106 set in 1999.

Ortwerth is a perfect 16-for-16 for the year and now has 27 thefts over the last two years, leaving her at fifth on the Truman career list.

Wedemeier is second on the team with 17-of-18 stolen bases under her belt in her first collegiate season to rank tied for 16th on the Bulldog career list.

Mueller also now has 13 career stolen bases.
The Bulldogs

The Lady Hornets have lost six of their last nine games, hitting just .347 in the 'Dogs' first 18 contests to hitting .327 in the second half of the season. Ortwerth has improved from .260 to .327 in those round-trippers and leads the team with 10, while Wedemeier has hit three during that span.

OVER THE SECOND HALF OF THE SEASON, the Bulldogs bats picked up. Economon has led the team in the last 19 games, hitting .517 over that span after hitting just .347 in the 'Dogs' first 18 games. Ortwerth has improved from .260 to .308 for second half games, while Leann Paul has gone from hitting .240 in the first 18 contests to hitting .327 in the last 19 games. As a team, the Bulldogs hit .246 through the first half of the 2003 campaign, but have improved to .295 in the second half of the season.

IN MIAA ONLY GAMES, Economon has hit .500 with a 1.250 slugging percentage on six home runs and three doubles, along with 10 RBIs.

Wedemeier has hit .387 with a .742 slugging percentage on three home runs and two doubles, along with eight RBIs.

Leann Paul (.385) and Shelby Ortwerth (.303) have also hit above .300 in MIAA only games.

Buford and Wonderly have both posted 4-0 records in the conference this year and have 0.24 and 0.93 ERAs, respectively. Mayer and Wedemeier are both 1-0 with 0.00 ERAs in MIAA only games.

BULLDOGS AMONG MIAA STATISTICAL LEADERS: Before Monday's doubleheader with Missouri Western, Economon led the MIAA in batting (.420), slugging percentage (.750), on base percentage (.496) and home runs (.229 pg), and was second in RBIs (.86 pg) and fifth in runs (.74 pg).

Wedemeier was 12th in batting (.343), ninth in slugging percentage (.553) and home runs (.114 pg), third in stolen bases (.46 pg), seventh in ERA (1.44), fifth in strikeouts per seven innings (5.38) and eighth in walks per seven innings (1.44).

Cepicky was 17th in batting (.316) and second in stolen bases (.54 pg). Ortwerth was fourth in stolen bases (.40 pg).

Nikki Mayer led the MIAA with a 0.62 ERA and was 10th in walks per seven innings (1.56). Britni Buford was fourth in ERA (1.29) and sixth in strikeouts per seven innings (5.34). Wonderly was seventh in ERA (1.41) and 10th in strikeouts per seven innings (4.76).

ABOUT MISSOURI-ST. LOUIS (12-19-1, 3-7 MIAA): The Riverwomen have won five of their last 16 games and are coming off of a 4-2 loss to Findlay (Ohio) on Sunday. Prior to that game, UMSL beat Grand Valley State (Mich.), 1-0.

Kim Kulaitis is hitting a team-best .337, while Heather Burr is batting .291.

Danielle Moore is 6-9 with a 2.24 ERA, while Casey Moran is 4-6 with a 2.14 ERA.

Joanie Beckwe is 2-4 with a 3.29 ERA.

ABOUT EMPORIA STATE (24-13, 6-4 MIAA): The Lady Hornets have lost six of their last nine games and five of the last seven. After opening MIAA play with a sweep of Washburn and Northwest Missouri, ESU lost a doubleheader to Missouri Western last Thursday. Over the weekend, Emporia split with Southwest Baptist and Missouri-Rolla.

Megan Beattie is second in the conference with a .389 batting average, eighth in slugging percentage (.556), fifth in on base percentage (.451), second in doubles (.371 pg) and fourth in RBIs (.77 pg).

Kelly Gartner is 13th in slugging percentage (.500), seventh in home runs (.135 pg) and sixth in RBIs (.65 pg) among league leaders. Alison Pottorf is seventh in league stolen bases (.27 pg).

Melissa Stevens is fifth in MIAA victories (11), sixth in ERA (1.41) and second in strikeouts per seven innings (7.26), and Courtney Reed is tied for second in saves (2) and is ninth in walks per seven innings (1.56).

ABOUT WASHBURN (27-10, 7-3 MIAA): The Lady Blues have won seven straight since losing 2-1 to Augustana (S.D.) on April 5. In MIAA play, WU opened with a pair of losses to Emporia, 24 and 6-3, and split with Northwest Missouri, losing the first game of a doubleheader 5-4 before winning the night cap, 3-0. Last week, the Lady Blues swept doubleheaders at Pittsburg and in Topeka over Southwest Baptist and Missouri-Rolla.

Tiffany Whitt leads the team with a .382 batting average and is ranked third in the MIAA. Julie Blaufuss is hitting .351 to rank ninth in the league and Katie Schmidt is 18th with a .316 average.

Schmidt and Blaufuss are 10th (526) and 11th (523), respectively, in slugging percentage while Whitt is fourth in the MIAA in on base percentage and Schmidt is eighth.

Blaufuss is also sixth in doubles (.270 pg) and Whitt is third in runs scored (.78 pg) and sixth in stolen bases (.32 pg).

Katie Gregg is tied for first in the MIAA with 14 wins for the year and Ashley Perkins is third with 13 wins. Perkins is also second in the league in ERA (1.05) and fourth in strikeouts per seven innings (5.60), and Gregg is third in ERA (1.06) and seventh in strikeouts per seven innings, while leading the MIAA in walks per seven innings (0.61).

THE SERIES WITH MISSOURI-ST. LOUIS: The Bulldogs have a 23-12 advantage in the all-time series with UMSL. The last meeting was on March 21, 2001, when Truman won 7-2 and 8-1 in Kirksville. The Riverwomen won the meeting prior to that on April 20, 1996, 7-3 at a neutral site.

THE SERIES WITH EMPORIA: Truman has won the last 10 games in the series with Emporia and has an 18-13 lead in the all-time series. Last year, the 'Dogs beat the Lady Hornets 6-1 and 5-2 in a double dip. ESU's last win came on April 18, 1998, 2-3 in game one of a doubleheader in Emporia.

THE SERIES WITH WASHBURN: The Lady Blues hold a 23-16 advantage in the series with the Bulldogs. Last year, WU beat the 'Dogs 12-9 and 8-3 in a regular season doubleheader, and by a 4-2 score in the MIAA tournament. However, Truman came up with a 1-0 win in a rematch in the MIAA tourney to advance to the championship game and eventually earn an automatic berth to the NCAA North Central region tournament. The 'Dogs won five straight games prior to last season.

COACH: Last summer, Lacey Schanz was named head coach for the Bulldogs. Schanz was the pitching coach in 2001 at University of Pennsylvania. Prior to that, Schanz was a four-year letterwinner on the Georgia Tech softball squad as a catcher and designated hitter. Schanz started 75 of 109 games over a three-year span
