TRUMAN BULLDOGS

MEN’S BASKETBALL
WEEKLY GAME NOTES

Week 8

Wednesday, Jan. 3, 2007 7:30 p.m.
Fort Hays State Tigers vs. Truman Bulldogs
(7-3; 0-2) (7-4; 1-1)
Pershing Arena (Kirksville, Mo.)

Saturday, Jan. 6, 2007 7:30 p.m.
Truman Bulldogs vs. Missouri Western Griffons
(7-1; 1-1) (8-3; 1-1)
MWSU Fieldhouse (St. Joseph, Mo.)

This Week’s Games:
The Truman Bulldogs return to Pershing Arena after two road losses and host conference newcomer Fort Hays State on Wednesday night in Pershing Arena. Truman enters the week with a 7-4 overall record and a 1-1 conference mark, while the Tigers also have a 7-4 overall record but are winless in their first two league games.

Following Wednesday night’s home tilt, the Bulldogs play their third MIAA road game when they face Missouri Western in St. Joseph on Saturday night.

Broadcast Info:
Truman basketball can be heard on 104.7 Superstation KRES with Brad Boyer and Hank Janssen calling the action. The game will also be available over the internet at regionalradio.com and on Teamline.

The broadcast kicks off 20 minutes prior to tip-off with the “All-New” Bentz GM Countryside pre-game show, continues with the Depot Inn and Suites Halftime report and concludes with the Sydenstricker Farm and Lawn post-game show.

Coach Jack Schrader:
Jack Schrader is in his 12th year on the Truman bench and was named the MIAA and NABC Division II South Central region “Coach of the Year” following the 2005-06 season. It was the second time Schrader had been named coach of the year in both the conference and the region by his peers. The first was following the 1998-99 Final Four squad.

Schrader is a graduate of Arizona State and has a 133-180 overall record.

Last Time Out:
Pittsburg State 68, Truman 63 (Pittsburg, Kan.)
Dec. 30, 2006 – Austin Kirby’s three-pointer rattled out and Pittsburg State held on for a 68-63 victory over the Bulldogs on Saturday afternoon in Kansas. Truman almost rallied from eight down with under two minutes to play but fall to 7-4 overall and 1-1 in the MIAA.

The Gorillas built up an eight point lead in the first half but Truman scratched their way back and ended the period with a monster dunk by Nick Certa off a miss by Travis Kern. The jam by Certa pulled the Bulldogs to within four points at the break 29-25.

In the second half, Truman kept the game close shooting 44.8% from the field and hitting clutch shots down the homestretch. Kirby had a chance to tie the game at the 14:03 mark but missed his second free throw attempt and Pitt State remained in front 40-39.

Later in the half, Truman went on a 9-3 run, highlighted by Certa’s triple to give Truman their first lead since the start of the game at 51-50 with 7:30 to play. However, Aberdeen and Ed Morris proved to be a formidable force for the Gorillas and led them on an 8-2 spurt to regain the lead with 4:04 remaining. The biggest shot in the sequence was a three-pointer by Rashaad Singleton.

Truman wouldn’t quit and Certa and Kirby each scored to pull the Bulldogs to within two points with a minute left. Keith Windom hit 3-of-4 from the line and Pitt led by five with 23.7

Men’s Basketball Week #8 ♦ Fort Hays State vs. Truman (Jan. 3) ♦ Truman vs. Missouri Western (Jan. 6) ♦

Calmes Nearing 1,000 Points:
Senior Andy Calmes needs just six points to enter the Truman 1,000 point club, currently occupied by 18 other former Bulldogs. Calmes will be just the sixth Bulldog to accumulate over 1,000 points and 700 rebounds during his career.

The other Bulldogs to achieve that distinction are Cory Parker (1,835/955), David Winslow (1,447/996), Jason Reiber (1,429/915), Larry Swift (1,329/821), and Lou Gregory (1,049/764). With five more rebounds, Calmes will pass Erik Hansen (1983-87) for seventh all-time in rebounding. Calmes has 725 rebounds.

Other Bulldogs Reaching Milestones:
Two other Bulldog starters are closing in on 1,000 points. Grant Agbo is currently at 900 points and Austin Kirby at 867.

Kirby is within five made three-pointers from moving past two Bulldogs and the top five all-time in three-pointers made. Kirby has 159 and will next pass Mike Peterson’s 161 (1997-01) and Jason Ramthun’s 164 (1996-00) on the list.

Truman In Conference Home Games:
In the eight MIAA games played in Pershing Arena last season, the Bulldogs were 5-3, with all but two games coming down to the final few possessions.

The Bulldogs shot 43% in home conference games, 37% from long range and 70% at the foul line. The opposition shot nearly identical numbers and actually outscored the Bulldogs on the home court by a 0.3 margin.

It was Truman’s clutch performances in close games that put them over the top in key league matchups. In three of the five Bulldog wins on the home court, Truman trailed heading into the final minute of play but rallied and won by 4 (Northwest), 1 (Emporia State) and 5 in overtime (Pittsburg State).

Chip Sodemann was spectacular in home conference games averaging 14.9 ppg and shooting 97.1% at the free throw line, going 33-of-34. Sodemann’s only miss was in a 9-for-10 performance against Pittsburg State.

Andy Calmes averaged 12.1 points and 8.6 rebounds during those games as well.

Team Rankings:
The Bulldogs were first in league rankings in three categories last week. Truman was first in defensive three-point field goal percentage with a 28.9% that went up to 30.1% following the Pitt State game. The Gorillas were just 3-of-15 in Saturday’s game from outside.

Truman was first in rebounding margin at a plus-nine but was outrebounded for the first time all year against the Gorillas. The rebounding margin slipped to +7.4.

The assist/turnover ratio was at 1.53 and dropped to 1.40 after Saturday’s game. Truman is averaging 16.8 assists per game and 11.6 turnovers a contest.

The first NCAA Division II national rankings will be released on Wednesday.

Series Records with Fort Hays State:
The Bulldogs and Tigers have met just twice on the hardcourt in previous years, but that will be matched this season with Fort Hays joining the MIAA.

Fort Hays has won both meetings with Truman with the last game taking place on Dec. 18, 1993 in Hays, Kan. The Tigers defeated the Bulldogs 101-65.

The first match-up was on Nov. 25, 1989, again in Hays with the home team prevailing 66-63.

Notes on the Tigers:
The Tigers “unofficially” become the last MIAA team to win the national championship. Fort Hays won the Division II title with a 34-0 record in the 1995-96 season. Central Missouri won the national title as a member of the conference in 1984.

Fort Hays was 24-6 last season and won the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference title with an 18-1 mark. The Tigers were number one in the country for two weeks in late February, however they were bounced from the national tournament in the regional semi-finals by Northern State (S.D.) 60-58.

Fort Hays started the season winning their first five games but has since dropped four of their next six contest, including both conference match-ups to sit at 7-4 overall and 0-2 in the MIAA.

Both of the Tigers conference losses have come against two of the three ranked teams. Fort Hays lost to #18 Emporia State on the road 86-71, then on Saturday, dropped a home game to #12 Northwest Missouri 72-54.

Senior Jeff Pruitt is the team’s leading scorer at 14.1 ppg. Pruitt is also the teams leading rebounder at 7.7 a game and shoots 50% from the field.

Senior Kevin Wagstaff is second on the team in points at ten per game and is the squad’s leading three-point shooter at 34% on 21-of-61.

Mark Johnson is in his sixth season as head coach of the Tigers. He has a 106-40 record and is a graduate of Pittsburg State, earning all-MIAA honors twice.

Series Records with Missouri Western:
The Griffons won both meetings last year with the Bulldogs and have a 34-18 advantage all-time between the two schools.

Last Year vs. Missouri Western:
Missouri Western 69, Truman 49 (Jan. 18, 2006 - Pershing Arena)
The Griffons led by as many as 20 points in the first half and 24 points in the second on their way to shooting over 52% from the field in the 20-point win over the Bulldogs in Kirksville.

Demarius Bolds led the Griffons with 20 points and Rickey Quarrels added 16 on 7-of-8 from the field.

Truman shot just 30% from the field for the game, making just 15 field goals. Chip Sodemann was the Bulldogs high scorer with 14 points.

Missouri Western 80, Truman 57 (Feb. 8, 2006 - MWSU Fieldhouse)
Missouri Western earned the season sweep of the Bulldogs, one of only conference teams (Southwest Baptist) to do so during the 2005-06 season, with an 80-57 victory.

The Griffons had a 12-point lead at the midway point and never let the Bulldogs under double-digits the entire second half. A basket by Sodemann at the 4:05 mark pulled the Bulldogs to within 11 points however, Missouri Western scored the next 12 points to close out the game.

Bolds led the home team with 20 points, while Jason Warren added 16. Grant Agbo scored 15 for Truman and Andy Calmes and Derek Lindsey had 13 apiece.

Notes on the Griffons:
Missouri Western was 17-11 last season and 8-8 in the MIAA. They lost in the first round of the MIAA tournament to rival Northwest Missouri 72-49.

The Griffons won six of their first seven games with the only blemish coming at the hands of Armstrong Atlantic State 65-61 on Nov. 18th. However, since that 6-1 start, Missouri Western dropped two of their next three games before the Christmas break.

Missouri Western will face Northwest Missouri on Wednesday night prior to Truman’s trip to St. Joseph.

The Griffons enter the week with an 8-3 record and were 1-1 in the MIAA. They defeated Missouri Southern by 13 points last Saturday night but fell to Washburn by one back on Dec. 9th. J.R. Reed and Joe Manthe will be the players to watch for Missouri Western. The duo averages 33.6 points combined with Reed’s 17.5 and Manthe’s 16.1. Both are accurate three-point shooters with Reed hitting 42% on 34-of-81 and Manthe shooting 53% on 31-of-58 from outside.

Tom Smith is one of the dean’s of the MIAA men’s coaches. Smith has been a coach for 31 years, his first five at Central Missouri, next eight at Valparaiso and the previous 18 seasons at Missouri Western.

Smith is 6th in Division II Coaching record by victories with 534 entering the 06-07 season.

Up Next:
The first week of classes bring two home games to Pershing Arena next week. The Bulldogs will entertain #18 Emporia State on Wednesday night followed by a visit by Washburn on Saturday afternoon.

Emporia, picked ninth in the preseason by coaches, entered this week undefeated. The Hornets play a pair of road games at Washburn and Pittsburg State this week.
