This Week’s Action:

The good news for the Truman women’s basketball team is that last week it earned its first trip to the MIAA postseason tournament since 2003. The bad news, the team will have to face first-ranked Washburn and its 46-game winning streak on Thursday in the opening round of the conference tournament.

The Bulldogs closed out their 2005-06 regular season with a loss to Central Missouri and a victory over Southwest Baptist. The win over the Lady Bearcats was a must-win contest, with the winner advancing to Kansas City and the postseason tournament.

Truman finishes the regular season with a 12-15 overall record, the team’s best since the 2001-02 season. The Bulldogs came in eighth in the MIAA with a 3-13 mark.

A Recap Of Last Week:

Central Missouri 70, Truman 56

A strong start to the second half sparked Central Missouri to a 70-56 win over the Bulldogs last Wednesday night in Pershing Arena.

The first half was back-and-forth with three ties and six lead changes. Central Missouri hit a three-pointer with 45 seconds left to take a 31-29 lead and, after a Truman free throw, the Jennies ended up going into break with a 31:30 advantage.

The close game ended quickly in the second half. Before the fans even got settled back into their seats, Central Missouri scored seven straight points in the first 1:03 of play. By the time Truman hit a field goal nearly seven minutes into the half, the Jennies had built a 46-34 lead and the Bulldogs never cut their deficit under nine the rest of the way.

Central Missouri made seven more field goals in the game, which was the difference since the two teams had the same amount of three-pointers and free throws. The Jennies shot 46.3% in the game, compared to a 38.3% for the Bulldogs.

Truman coach had four players in double-figures, but no other player on the roster scored. Candace McGee led the team with 17 points, including five three-pointers. Other players in double-figures for the Bulldogs were Natalie Schubach with 15, Georgia Mueller with 14 and Ali Long with 10.

Schupbach led the squad in rebounding with eight on the night, which helped Truman outrebound the Jennies by four boards.

Central Missouri was led by Tiffany Vincent with 19 points. Kara Rewerts came off the bench to add 14 and Ashley Millham finished the game with 11. Lindsey Maple was the team's leading rebounder with seven boards, and Rewerts had seven of the Jennies' 21 assists.

Truman 68, Southwest Baptist 61
Truman's season continues this week thanks to a 68-61 victory over Southwest Baptist last Saturday in Pershing Arena.

The battle for the final playoff spot went down to the final minutes. The play of the game came with 1:15 remaining and the Bulldogs holding on to a thin 57-56 lead. Candace McGee gave the Bulldogs some breathing room by nailing a three-pointer. After a Lady Bearcat turnover, Natalie Schupbach scored with 30 seconds remaining to seal the game.

Truman had a good first half, ending it on a 6-0 run to take a 31-24 lead into halftime. In the final half, Southwest Baptist used a 12-1 spurt to take a 44-41 lead with 10:36 remaining. The Lady Bears would lead by as much as four, until Truman retook the lead for good with under six minutes remaining in the game.

The Bulldogs won the game at the free throw line, where they hit 23-of-28 shots, an .821 percentage. Southwest Baptist only shot 50% from the stripe, making 10-of-20. Truman also outrebounded the Lady Bears 37-29.

On Senior Day at Pershing Arena, it was the Bulldogs' lone senior, Ali Long, which sparked the team to the victory. Long kept driving and getting to the basket, making all four field goals and three-of-five free throws in the game.

Her freshman teammate Georgia Mueller also had a big day, scoring 22 points on seven-of-13 shooting from the field and seven-of-nine from the free throw line. She had a double-double in the game, as she also grabbed a team-high 10 rebounds.

The McGee twins chipped in with 21 points, with Candace scoring 13 and Carmen tying a career-high with eight points. Carmen also tied a personal-best in rebounding with seven boards.

Southwest Baptist was led by Cortney Shewmaker with 17 points, followed by Livia Brito with 13 and Courtney Creed with 11.

Truman Coaching Staff:
John Sloop is in his sixth season as the Truman women's basketball head coach. He has a career coaching record of 63-98.

Sloop has led the Bulldogs to three MIAA tournament appearances. Among his victories were upsets over nationally-ranked teams Washburn, in 2002-03, and Quincy, in 2004-05.

Prior to coming to Truman, Sloop was an assistant coach for the Truman men's team for five years. He also helped coached Division I teams at Missouri State and Saint Louis.

Sloop is 2-11 all-time against Washburn.

Assistant coach of the Bulldogs is Marne Fauser. The former Bulldog player is also in her sixth season of coaching at the school.

2005-06 Truman Improvements:
No matter what happens at this week's MIAA tournament, the 2005-06 Truman women's basketball team has helped turn the program around and be pointed in the right direction for the future.

With a young roster consisting of just one senior and one junior among its regular rotation, the Bulldogs have collected their most wins (12) and home wins (9) since the 2001-02 campaign.

Statistically, the team is improved in nearly every category, including shooting percentages, rebounding, blocking and scoring.

Truman's Lone Senior:
With the young roster, the role of Truman's lone senior, Ali Long, has been very important this year in leading the team to the most wins of any Truman team during her career. She has done this not by putting up gaudy numbers, but by doing all the intangibles that makes a team better.

This season, Long is averaging a career-best 5.3 points a game, including 6.6 points in conference action. Some of her biggest points have come late in close ballgames, most notably in the upset win against Missouri Western. That night, she scored a career-high 14 points. She was 10-of-13 from the free throw line in that game, including making seven in the final four minutes to help hold off the Griffons.

Last Saturday, with Truman needing a win to make the MIAA Tournament, Long scored 11 points, grabbed five rebounds and had four assists. She was four-of-four from the field and three-of-five from the free throw line.

In 2005-06, Long also averages 2.2 rebounds, 2.6 assists and 1.6 steals a game. She is first on the team in assist-to-turnover ratio and field goal percentage, and second in assists and steals. Her stats in all of those categories are the highest of her career.

For her four years at Truman, Long has collected 407 points (3.77 ppg), 197 rebounds (1.82 rpg), 193 assists (1.79 apg) and 114 steals (1.06 spg). She will likely finish just outside of Truman's top-10 career lists in assists and steals.

Long has appeared in every game during her Bulldog career and is currently tied for third on Truman's consecutive games played list with 108. She has started 82 games in her career, including the last 54 contests.
All-Conference Team:
Candace McGee was the only Bulldog represented on the all-MIAA teams. McGee earned honorable mention accolades for her sophomore season.

McGee is second on the team with 11.3 points a game and leads the team in three-pointers and steals. In the MIAA, she ranks 18th in scoring, second in three-point field goals made and tenth in three-point percentage.

Three-Point Records:
Last week, Truman set a new team record for three-pointers made in a season. The Bulldogs have made 182 shots from beyond the arc this year. The team has also attempted a new team record with 545 attempts.

Candace McGee has led the team’s assault from three-point range. She has made 74 three-pointers this year, two shy of the Truman single-season record. McGee has also shot more three-pointers (198) this season than any Bulldog in school history.

Georgia Mueller’s Outstanding Rookie Season:
Shock and disbelief are two words to describe Bulldog fans after Georgia Mueller did not receive the MIAA freshman of the year award, despite her having superior stats than the winner, Missouri Southern’s substitute Meghan Welch.

Mueller leads Truman with 12.1 points a game and is second in rebounding with 6.1 boards a game. She is the first Bulldog freshman to average double-figure scoring since 1997-98, and the first to lead the team in scoring since 1987-88.

She also leads the team in blocks, recording the sixth-most at Truman for a single-season. Mueller has the team in scoring seven times and in rebounding eight games. She has 17 double-figure scoring games and six double-doubles.

In Truman’s biggest game of the year, the must win contest versus Southwest Baptist, she led the team at victory with 22 points and 10 rebounds. Many of those points came late in the game, helping Truman retake the lead in the final minutes.

In the MIAA, Mueller ranks third in doubles, fifth in blocks, eighth in free throw percentage, 12th in rebounding and 13th in scoring.

National Statistics:
Through Feb. 26, Truman ranked 38th in the national statistics in three-point field goals made, and it was 45th in free throw percentage.

Individuality, Candace McGee was 15th in three-point field goals made.

Misc. Notes:
Truman is 3-5 since Carmen McGee has moved into the starting lineup ... Natalie Schupbach has made 25 straight free throws and 55-of-59 (.932) since Christmas ... the Bulldogs have 79 blocks this year, the second most in school history and six shy of the school record set in 2000-01 ... Schupbach has 453 career rebounds, the 13th-most in school history. She is 43 boards shy of entering Truman’s top-10 list ... Schupbach needs seven rebounds to enter Truman’s top-20 single-season rebounding list ...

The Bulldogs have outrebounded their last seven MIAA opponents. The team’s rebounding margin in those games is +4.1 ... Truman has shot 75% or better from the free throw line in eight out of the last nine contests.

Truman In The MIAA Tournament:
Truman will be making its eighth appearance in the MIAA postseason tournament. The Bulldogs have not fared well in previous showings, going just 1-7 in conference tournament games. Truman’s lone victory came in 1999 when it defeated Pittsburg State to advance to the semifinals. Since that win, the Bulldogs have lost four straight in the conference tournament.

Since the MIAA Tournament moved to a neutral site in 2003, the Bulldogs have made the field just once, losing to Washburn by a 77-48 score in Kansas City in 2003.

In all, the Bulldogs are 17-18 in postseason play, going 12-7 in MAIAW Tournaments, 2-2 in AIAW Tournaments, 1-7 in MIAA Tournaments and 2-2 in NCAA Tournaments.
Scouting Washburn:
A Look At The Lady Blues

The number one team in the country went 27-0 for the regular season and had the first perfect MIAA record since the 1997-98 season. The team begins postseason play this year looking to repeat their 2006 MIAA and NCAA tournament championships.

Washburn ranks in the top-20 in numerous national categories. The team is ranked fourth in scoring offense with 83.1 points a game and is first with a .480 field goal percentage. The Lady Blues are allowing 56.0 points a game and are contrasting just 353 assists against them, marks both in the top-20. The team is also ranked second in scoring margin and fourth in rebounding margin.

The team is led by MIAA MVP Jennifer Harris, who is averaging 23.3 points, 5.3 rebounds and 5.2 assists a game. She was joined on the all-conference first-team by teammate Brooke Ubelaker, who is averaging 17.3 points and 5.4 rebounds a game. April Roadhouse was a second-team selection and Cindy Keeley was an honorable mention pick. Roadhouse and Keeley were both named to the MIAA all-defensive team.

The lone question mark for Washburn is how they will play without Megan Sullivan, who averaged 9.4 points and 6.9 rebounds a game this season. Sullivan was injured in the regular season finale and will miss all of the postseason. Amanda Holmes (5.2 ppg and 4.6 rpg) will likely replace Sullivan in the starting lineup.

Truman/Washburn Series History

Truman trails the all-time series with the Lady Blues by a 29-8 margin. Washburn is currently on a seven-game winning streak over the Bulldogs, including two regular season wins this year.

The Bulldogs last win in the series was a 76-71 victory in 2002-03, when the Lady Blues were ranked fifth nationally.

Truman and Washburn have faced off once before in the MIAA Tournament. In 2003, the Lady Blues won a 77-48 decision over the Bulldogs in a MIAA Quarterfinal game played in Kansas City, Mo.

Head Coach

Ron McHenry is the head coach of the Lady Blues. He is in his sixth season at the school and has a 154-32 overall record, including an 11-2 record against the Bulldogs.

Earlier This Season (box scores on page 14 & 16)

In the first meeting between the two this year in Kirksville, Washburn could never pull away from Truman, but the Bulldogs could never make a serious run late, and fell by a score of 74-64. The difference in the game was a 21-0 run that the Lady Blues had in the first-half after Truman jumped out to an early 19-10 lead.

The Bulldogs were able to contain Jennifer Harris, but Brooke Ubelaker made up for that by scoring 31 points for Washburn. Megan Sullivan had a double-double of 20 points and 10 rebounds. Truman was led by Katie Fowler who scored 15 points in the contest.

In the rematch in Topeka, Washburn jumped out to a 36-26 halftime lead and led by double-figures for much of the second half in a 77-61 win. The main difference in the game came from Truman turning the ball over 21 times, leading to 32 Washburn points. The Lady Blues also pounded the ball inside for much of the game, scoring 48 points in the paint.

Fowler again led the Bulldogs with 16 points, followed by Jennifer Franklin with 13 and Georgia Mueller with 12. Franklin led the team in rebounding with 6 boards. After being held in check in the first meeting, Harris exploded for 27 points. Ubelaker added 18 points and tied for the team-high with seven rebounds. Sullivan chipped in with 14 points in the game.
