This Week’s Games:

Two road games against two schools with the same Bearcat nickname are ahead this week for the Truman men’s basketball team. Truman has just three games remaining in the first rotation of the MIAA schedule and find themselves in fourth place, just one game back of first but two games ahead of a trio of teams in fifth place.

On Wednesday, Truman will make the trip over to Maryville and face-off against #11 Northwest Missouri, one of the three teams just one game ahead of the Bulldogs in the standings. The Bearcats are 12-3 overall and 5-1 in the MIAA.

Saturday’s road tilt in Bolivar against Southwest Baptist is a match-up with last year’s MIAA regular-season and tournament champions. The Bearcats were picked to finish second by the league coaches but have an 8-6 overall record and a 2-3 conference mark.

Broadcast Info:

Truman basketball can be heard on 104.7 Superstation KRES with Brad Boyer and Hank Janssens calling the action. The game will also be available over the internet at regionalradio.com and on Teamline.

The broadcast kicks off 20 minutes prior to tip-off with the ‘All-New’ Benz GM Country pre-game show, continues with the Depot Inn and Suites Halftime report and concludes with the Sydenstricker Farm and Lawn post-game show.

Coach Jack Schrader:

Jack Schrader is in his 12th year on the Truman bench and was named the MIAA and NABC Division II South Central region “Coach of the Year” following the 2005-06 season. It was the second time Schrader had been named coach of the year in both the conference and the region by his peers. The first was following the 1998-99 Final Four squad.

Schrader is a graduate of Arizona State and has a 136-182 overall record.

Last Time Out:

Truman 60, Washburn 45 (Kirksville, Mo.)

Jan. 13, 2007 – For the second game in succession, the Bulldog defense kept the opponents in check as the men’s team allowed only 17 second half points to the visiting Washburn Ichabods in a 60-45 win in Pershing Arena. Nick Certa led all scorers with 20 points and Andy Calmes added a double-double with 12 points and 10 rebounds.

The two teams played nip and tuck for most of the first half with Washburn only leading by three points on three different occasions and the Bulldogs getting just a five-point advantage at 31-26 just before half on a basket by Certa.

Over the first 13 minutes of the second half, Truman built their lead to as many as 14 points on an 18-6 run. With only a four-point lead, Austin Kirby hit a pair of free throws to start the engine that would keep the Bulldogs in front the rest of the way.

Certa slammed one home following a steal by Banks Estridge on the next possession to put Truman ahead 38-30. Estridge then gained a triple to extend the margin to double-figures at the 14:23 mark.

The Bulldogs held Washburn to their lowest point total since they joined the NCAA in 1989. The defense limited the Ichabods to just 5-of-26 shooting in the second half from the floor and 27% for the game. Washburn did get a slight rebounding edge at 38-36.

Certa finished with 20 points on 9-of-12 from the floor including 2-of-3 from outside. Calmes was 5-of-9 from the field for 12 points and had eight of his 10 rebounds on the defensive side of the court. Estridge finished with 10 points.

Emporia State 61, Truman 60 (Kirkville, Mo.)

Jan. 10, 2007 – A late steal by #8 Emporia State allowed the Hornets to escape Pershing Arena unbeaten and victorious over the Bulldogs, 63-60 in an exciting MIAA conference game. Truman held the top scoring team in the conference to 26 points below their season average and limited the Hornet sharpshooters to just...

18% from outside and just one triple in the second half.
Emporia raced out to a six point lead on the Bulldogs as Wes Book and Caleb Tegtmeier hit the Hornets first three attempts from long range. That would be all Truman would allow in the first half as the defense clamped down and the Bulldogs took their first lead on a Travis Kern three-pointer.
The two teams would battle the rest of the half with Truman finally going into the locker room on a 5-0 run and a 33-28 lead following a basket by Andy Calmes. Grant Agbo scored 13 of his game-high 15 points in the first period going a perfect 6-0-6 from the floor.
Early in the second half, Truman built up a 10-point lead at 42-32 after back-to-back baskets by Calmes and Nick Certa with 15:54. However the Hornets went on a 16-4 run over the next five minutes and took the lead back on a make by Tegtmeier.
The lead would change hands 11 times over the final 7:47 as neither team could sustain an advantage. Tegtmeier hit a pair of free throws with one minute remaining to put Emporia up 59-58 but Calmes responded with his own free throws with :32 seconds left to put Truman ahead.
Wes Book scored in the lane with :16 seconds showing to give the Hornets the one-point lead but Truman a chance at a final shot. As the ball worked to Calmes between the rings, Book sneaked in and swiped it away and was fouled by Banks Estridge.
Book hit both free throws and Austin Kirby’s three-pointer at the buzzer was just short to give Emporia the win. Book finished with a game-high 19 points, with 7-of-10 from the free throw line.
Truman was paced by 15 points by Agbo and 14 points and 13 rebounds by Calmes. Certa chipped in 12 and added nine boards. The Bulldogs shot 38% from the field and kept Emporia to well-under their season offensive averages.
The Hornets came in hitting over nine three-pointers a game and 44% from outside. Following the game, Emporia hit just 4-of-22 three-point attempts and only 33% from the field. Book had 19 points and 10 boards, while Tegtmeier had 15 points for the Hornets.
Agbo Closing In On 1,000 Point Club:
Senior Grant Agbo is looking to be the second Bulldog this season to join the exclusive 1,000 career-point club. The former MIAA Freshman of the Year has 946 career points and this season has started 14 of 15 games averaging 11.7 ppg and making 54.3% of his field goal attempts.
For his career, Agbo averages 49% from the field and 10.2 ppg.
Andy Calmes joined the club a few weeks ago, while Austin Kirby is also closing in on 1,000 points with 908.

Calmes Passes Lou Gregory:
Andy Calmes moved into sixth place in all-time rebounding at Truman last week by passing Lou Gregory ((1969-73). Calmes had a pair of double-doubles in last week’s games with 14 and 13 against Emporia State and 12 and 10 against Washburn.
Calmes will once again pass Gregory with four more points to move into 17th all-time in Truman scoring.
Calmes has 1045 points and 766 rebounds.

Certa Strong In Conference Play:
Junior Nick Certa is leading five Bulldogs in scoring at 14.4 ppg after scoring 12 points against Emporia and 20 points against Washburn last week. Certa has scored 20 points or more in five games this season.
In MIAA games, Certa is averaging 18.2 ppg, while shooting 59% from the field and 55% from three-point range.

Bulldog Tip-Ins:
- Truman committed just four turnovers in Saturday’s game against Washburn.

Series Records with Northwest Missouri:
Just like the storied football rivalry between the two schools, Truman and Northwest have had a similar rivalry on the basketball court. The series dates back to 1920, with Northwest holding a 92-89 advantage in the first three attempts from long range. That would be all Truman would allow in the first half as the defense clamped down and the Bulldogs took their first lead on a Travis Kern three-pointer.

Last Year vs. Northwest Missouri:

Truman 60, Northwest Mo. 56 (Jan. 25, 2006 - Pershing Arena)
The Bulldogs erased a 10-point deficit in the final 7:27 to defeat #18 Northwest Missouri before a raucous crowd in Pershing Arena. Chip Sodemann scored 14 of his game-high 16 points in the second half to lead the Bulldogs to victory.
Truman tied the game on a basket by Austin Kirby with 4:25 to go but did not take the lead until a Calmes lay-up with :31 seconds showing on the clock. Grant Agbo put the game away with a lay-up with :13 seconds left. The final 3:56 of the game was played without either team calling a time out.
Kirby had 11 and Derek Lindsey had 10 to go along with Sodemann’s 16 points. Mose Howard and Xavier Gaines had 15 points for the Bearcats.

Truman 76, Northwest Mo. 71 (Feb. 1, 2006 - Bearcat Arena)
Austin Kirby scored the Bulldogs first 11 points, including three three-pointers as the Bulldogs were able to take the season series with Northwest with a 76-71 win in Bearcat Arena.
With the score tied at 54 at half, Truman went on a 17-5 run to start the second and built up a 14 point lead with 15:34 to play.
Northwest would go on an 11-2 run over the next four minutes to cut the lead to three points but Truman again responded with some separation and had a nine-point lead with 6:25 remaining.

The Bears got a three-pointer from Adelle Houston with 1:24 showing to cut the deficit to three but Kirby hit is seventh three-pointer of the night on the next possession to keep Truman in front. The Bulldogs would hit all four of their free throw attempts in the final 21 seconds to seal the victory.

Kirby finished with a career-high 24 points on 7-of-9 from outside, while Lindsey added 14, Nick Certa scored 11 and Andy Calmes recorded a double-double with 10 points and 12 rebounds.

Austen Meyer had a game-high 25 points for Northwest with five of his own three-pointers.

Notes on the Northwest Bearcats:
Just like the Bulldogs, Northwest relies on their defense to produce victories. The Bearcats are first in the MIAA and second in the nation in points allowed per game at 56.7.

The Bearcats are also first in the conference in defensive field goal percentage, steals and turnover margin, while second in defensive field goal percentage.

Hunter Henry is the Bearcats leading scorer at 17.5 ppg and is tied for fourth in the MIAA. Hunter is seventh in the league in rebounding at 7.2 boards per game.

Northwest is also the top free throw shooting team in the conference, making 76% of their charity stripe attempts. Reggie Robinson is right behind Truman's Austin Kirby in second place in free throw shooters at 80.7%.

Steve Tappmeyer is in his 19th season as coach of his alma mater. Tappmeyer entered the 2006-07 season with 348 victories, the most by a coach at Northwest Missouri and has put together nine straight 15-win seasons.

Series Records with Southwest Baptist:
Southwest Baptist holds a 21-14 advantage in the series records between the two schools. The Bearcats won both of last year’s meeting en route to winning the MIAA regular-season title. Truman’s last win in Bolivar was during the 2003-04 season as they squeaked out a 60-58 victory.

Last Year vs. Southwest Baptist:
Southwest Baptist 86, Truman 82 - OVERTIME (Dec. 10, 2006 - Meyer Sports Center)
Southwest Baptist entered the game riding a 9-0 start and was met punch by punch by the Truman Bulldogs in a classic battle. The Bearcats had a nine-point lead with 8:21 to play only to watch the Bulldogs take a point lead advantage less than five minutes later.

The two teams traded the lead down the stretch until Chip Sodemann gave the Bulldogs a three-point lead with four free throws in the final:58 seconds. Unfortunately, Jim Grabowski hit a long bomb from just inside the half court line to tie the game and send it in to overtime.

Southwest Baptist clinched the MIAA regular-season championship by shooting 76% in the second half and defeating the Bulldogs by ten in the final game during the 2005-06 regular season.

The Bearcats had a 12-point lead just before half as Truman was able to cut it down to eight on four points by Chip Sodemann. The Bulldogs kept the momentum going early in the second, cutting the deficit to two points at 40-38 following a basket by Andy Calmes.

After a timeout, Frans Steyn gave the Bears some cushion by scoring the first four points as SBU went on a 32-15 run had a 19-point lead with 3:22 showing.

Calmes finished with 22 points and Garret Grimm added 12 for the Bulldogs. SBU was paced by Sheldon Pace and his 24 points, followed by Steyn’s 14.

Notes on the Southwest Baptist Bearcats:
The Bears play at Washburn on Wednesday night before entertaining the Bulldogs on Saturday afternoon.

Southwest Baptist is second in the league in scoring averaging 84.4 points per game, while being first in the conference in three-pointers made at 9.93 and first in blocked shots at 4.86.

Jason Jemison is currently second in the conference in scoring with a 17.9 average. Jemison is also second in three-pointers made per game at 3.43.

Matthew Rogers is the league’s top shot blocker. Rogers averages 2.93 blocks per game and is a 6-10 freshman forward from Doniphan, Mo.

Jeff Guiot enters third year at Southwest Baptist after taking the Bearcats to a 27-5 record and an MIAA championship last year. Guiot is a 1986 graduate of Pittsburg State University.

Up Next:
Truman returns home for their second of three two-game homestands during the conference season. The Bulldogs will host nationally ranked and rival Central Missouri on Wednesday night in Pershing Arena to finish up the first half of the conference schedule. Truman will be looking to avenge two previous losses to the Mules with the last coming in the NCAA South Central regional last year in Bolivar.

On Saturday, Missouri Southern will travel to Kirkville for an afternoon tilt. The Bulldogs handed the Lions a 70-53 win in Joplin back on Dec. 9th.
