Upcoming Games:

Truman will open up conference play after Christmas with a pair of road contests. The Bulldogs travel to Missouri Southern next Wednesday for their MIAA opener. The team then plays its first game in 2005 with a Sunday, Jan. 2, game at nationally-ranked Pittsburg State (Kan.).

The Bulldogs enter conference action on a high note with their longest winning streak since 1999-2000. After starting the season 0-5 against a tough schedule, Truman turned things around and has now won four straight games.

Last Saturday, the team won its second road game of the year as the Bulldogs went down to Jefferson City and held on for a 76-74 win against the Blue Tigers of Lincoln.

Scouting The Lions:

Missouri Southern finished with the worst record in the MIAA in non-conference play, going 4-7. The team suffered a 1-7 streak at one point during that stretch, but enters the start of conference play on a two-game winning streak. The team earned a pair of wins recently over St. Thomas Aquinas (N.Y.) and Dominican (N.Y.) at the Hoop N’ Surf Classic in Hawaii.

Offensively, the team ranks eighth in the MIAA with 72.0 points a game. The team is third in field goal percentage but ranks last in three-pointers made and three-point field goal percentage.

Defensively, the Lions give up 74.3 points a game, which ranks ninth in the MIAA. The team is last in field goal percentage defense and second-to-last in three-point field goal percentage defense.

Orestus Cavness is the team’s leading scorer and rebounder. He averages 14.6 points and 6.6 rebounds a game. Jeremy McCadney is second on the team with 11.6 points a game.

Tyler Ryerson and Quentin Edwards both average over four assists a game and Hiram Ocasio and Edwards average two steals a game or better.

Scouting The Gorillas:

Pittsburg State was the only MIAA school to escape Missouri Southern in non-conference play with a perfect record as the Gorillas won all nine of their games by nearly 20 points a game. The team moved into the national rankings two weeks ago and moved up to a tie for 20th in this week’s poll.

Offensively, the team ranks sixth with an 82.0 scoring average. The team ranks fourth in the MIAA in field goal percentage and fifth in three-point field goal percentage.

Defensively, the Gorillas are third in the league, allowing just 62.7 points a game. Teams are shooting under 40% from the field and 30% from three-point range against Pittsburg State.

Eddie Jackson is the team’s top scoring threat, averaging 24.4 points a game and hitting a league-high 4.56 three-pointers a game. He is shooting 52.6% from the field and 51.9% from three-point

Head Coach Jack Schrader

Jack Schrader is in his 10th season as the Truman head coach. He is the 10th head coach in Bulldog history. Schrader ranks third among the all-time coaches in career wins and longest tenure at the school.

In the first nine years under Schrader, the Bulldogs have made five appearances in the MIAA postseason tournament. Heading into this season, he had a 96-151 career record, including a 49-97 mark in conference play. In 1998-99, he led the team to one of the best seasons in school history, which concluded with an appearance in the NCAA Division II semifinals. Truman claimed the MIAA postseason tournament championship that year and Schrader was named the conference’s coach of the year and the NABC regional coach of the year.

Schrader has coached two players who earned first-team All-MIAA honors, including Cory Parker who claimed the honor three times. Jason Reinberg was first-team All-MIAA in 1999 and was an academic all-American twice.

One other Bulldog under Schrader earned second-team MIAA honors and six players received eight honorable mention awards. Parker was also named to the all-region team for three years, twice as a first-team selection, and was a two-time honorable mention all-American. Jason Reinberg was named the 2000 MIAA athlete of the year.

In the classroom, 21 different Truman players under Schrader have been named to the MIAA commissioner’s academic honor roll 39 times. Four players have received eight Presidential Scholar awards for a perfect GPA. Jason Reinberg (twice) and Matt Beran were named academic All-MIAA after maintaining high GPA’s while earning all-MIAA status. Beran, Jiri Mikl, Aaron Mueller, Mike Peterson and Reinberg have 11 nine academic all-district awards between them.

All-Time Series:
Missouri Southern leads the all-time series with Truman by a 16-12 margin.

Last season, the Bulldogs swept the season series with the Lions, winning both games by three points. Prior to that, the Lions had won eight straight over Truman.

Pittsburg State has a 21-7 all-time series lead over the Bulldogs. The Gorillas have won eight straight in the series, including a pair of wins last year. The last Truman win the series came in 2000. The Bulldogs have only won twice before in Pittsburg, the last coming during the 1999 MIAA postseason tournament.

(Complete box scores from last season’s games against Missouri Southern and Pittsburg State can be found on pages 10-11)

Head Coaches:
Jack Schrader is in his tenth season as the head coach of the Bulldogs. He has a 100-156 overall coaching record, all while coaching at Truman.

In 1998-99, he led Truman to a MIAA tournament championship and a trip to the NCAA Final Four. Schrader is the third longest tenured head coach in Truman history and is also third in career coaching victories.

Schrader is 6-12 all-time against Missouri Southern and 3-14 against Pittsburg State.

Robert Corn is in his 16th season as a college head coach, all at Missouri Southern. He has an all-time coaching mark of 242-191.

Corn is 15-11 in his career against Truman. Gene Iba is in his 10th season at Pittsburg State and 25th overall as a head coach. He is 181-88 at Pittsburg State and has a career coaching mark of 409-291.

Iba has a 1-4-3 record against Truman.

Last Week’s Action:
Truman 76, Lincoln 74

Truman received two career-high games from its junior guards as the Bulldogs defeated Lincoln (Mo.) by a 76-74 score last Saturday in Jefferson City.

The game had some similarities to the first Truman/Lincoln game this year. Once again, the Bulldogs finished the first-half strong to go into the break with a double-digit lead. For the second straight week, Lincoln had two technicals called on them, which this time proved to be very costly as the Bulldogs made all four free throws which was the difference in the close ballgame.

Despite those similarities, this Truman/Lincoln game went down to the wire. After hitting most of its free throw shots during the game, the Bulldogs missed several key ones late in the contest. The biggest misses came with six seconds remaining when Truman had a chance to seal the victory, but instead gave the Blue Tigers a chance to tie the game or win it with a three-pointer. Lincoln drove the ball into the lane in the final seconds but lost control of it as the time expired.

The game was tied at 31 after 15 minutes of play, but two straight three-pointers by Chip Sodemann sparked the Bulldogs to a 13-0 run over the final five minutes which gave Truman a 44-34 halftime lead. Truman held onto the double-figure lead for awhile in the second-half, but a dry spell by the Bulldogs led to a 10-0 Lincoln run which cut the lead four at 53-49 with 11:27 remaining in the game.

Truman worked its lead back up to 10 on two occasions and led 72-62 with under three minutes remaining. However, the Bulldogs hit just four-of-eight from the free throw line and missed two field goal attempts from that point on, causing Truman to have to come up with the defensive stop in the final seconds to escape with the win.

Sodemann ended the game with a career-high 25 points and Derek Lindsey also had a new personal best with 19 points. Sodemann was seven-of-12 from the field, five-of-seven from three-point range and six-of-six from the free throw line. Lindsey also made seven-of-12 from the field, including two-of-three from beyond the arc, and made three-of-four from the charity stripe.

Grant Agbo had a double-double for Truman with 13 points and 10 rebounds. Nine of his 13 points came from the free throw line. Austin Kirby was in double-figures as well with 11 points and he recorded a team-high four assists. Andy Calmes led the team on the day with 11 rebounds, helping the Bulldogs have a 34-27 rebounding margin for the game.

Lincoln had four players in double-figure scoring as it shot 49.1% from the field for the game. DJ Hogue led the way with 16 points and Sean Briggs had 14 points. Both of those players hit three three-pointers in the game. Dominic Prince added 12 points and Richard Pollock had 10 points and a team-high five rebounds.

Schrader Wins No. 100:
Last Saturday’s win over Lincoln was the 100th career victory for Bulldog head coach Jack Schrader. He is the third Truman men’s basketball coach to reach that milestone.

Winning Streak:
Truman’s four-game winning streak is the longest for the team since it opened up the 1999-2000 season with seven straight wins.

The last time the Bulldogs opened up their conference season with at least a four-game winning streak going was during the 1981-82 season. That year, Truman won four straight to end non-conference play and then won its first three MIAA games. The Bulldogs wound up with a 7-5 conference mark and placed fourth in the MIAA.

MIAA Openers:
Last season, the Bulldogs opened up MIAA play with a 79-76 home victory over Missouri Southern. That was the first time in four seasons that Truman won its MIAA opener.

The Bulldogs are 3-0 under head coach Jack Schrader in their first MIAA game of the year.

Defensive Improvements:

Truman’s win streak coincides with the team’s improvement on the defensive side of the court.

In the team’s five losses, the Bulldogs allowed 85.6 points a game and opponents shot 55.6% from the field. In three-point shooting, Truman’s opponents averaged over seven three-pointers a game and were shooting 45.1% beyond the arc.

During Truman’s current four-game winning streak, it had allowed 64.5 points a game and held opponents to a .404 field goal percentage. The Bulldogs’ opponents are averaging 5.5 three-pointers a game and a .282 three-point percentage.

Offensively, the team has also posted better numbers during their winning streak.

In the last four games, Truman is averaging 77.5 points a game and is shooting 41.8% from the field. From three-point range, the Bulldogs are averaging 7.7 three-pointers a game and are hitting 49.2% of their long range shots.

In the first five games of the season, the Bulldogs averaged 62.4 points a game and shot 37.9% from the field. In those games, Truman made 5.8 three-pointers a game and had a .354 three-point field goal percentage.

Beyond The Arc:

Truman has been knocking down its three-pointers lately. Over the last three games, the Bulldogs are averaging nine three-pointers a game and are shooting 55.1% from beyond the arc.

Chip Sodemann and Austin Kirby are doing most of the damage.

Sodemann is averaging four three-pointers a game and is shooting 61.5% from long-range in the last four games.

Kirby has hit 10 three-pointers in the last three contests in just 12 attempts, a .833 three-point percentage.

Free Throw Shooting:

Truman has also been hot from the charity stripe. Over the last five games, the Bulldogs have made nearly 80% of their free throw attempts.

Again, Kirby and Sodemann are the team’s leaders in this category.

Kirby’s consecutive free throw streak was snapped last time out. He had made 28 straight free throws going back to last season when he finally missed one this year. He leads the MIAA with a .966 free throw percentage this season.

Sodemann has an impressive streak going of his own as he has made 17 straight free throws.

Both Calmes and Agbo have recorded 10 or more rebounds in the last two games.

Taking Care Of The Ball:

Truman ranks first in the MIAA with a league-low 12.1 turnovers a game. The team has committed 12 or fewer turnovers in six straight games.

Bulldog Captains Lead The Way:

Truman’s three captains led the team to the victory last Saturday against Lincoln.

Chip Sodemann and Derek Lindsey both recorded career-highs with 25 and 19 points, respectively. Jon Hardy gave the team a spark with six first-half points.

For the game, that trio scored nearly 2/3 of the team’s points and shot 58.6% from the field.

All three captains have stepped up their play after Truman’s slow start.

Sodemann has scored in double-figures in five straight games and is averaging 18.3 points during Truman’s current winning streak.

After scoring just four points in the first three games of the year, Lindsey is averaging 11.3 points and shooting 54.2% from the field over the last six games.

Hardy, the team’s lone senior, is averaging over 10 minutes a game off the bench. He always gives the team a strong defensive effort and an occasional offensive spark.

Kirby Named Player Of The Week:

Austin Kirby was named the MIAA Player of the Week on Dec. 14 after averaging 22.5 points and 3.5 rebounds in wins over Quincy and Lincoln. He is the first Bulldog to receive the award since Cory Parker won it during the 1999-2000 season.

Kirby is averaging 17 points a game over the last five contests, including three games with 20 or more points, and leads the team on the year with 12.9 points a game.

Tough Schedule:

Truman had a very tough start to the season thanks to a brutal schedule. The Bulldogs were on the road for the first five games of the year against tough competition.

Among those first five games were three teams ranked in this week’s Division II national poll. Minnesota State, Mankato was ranked second, Nebraska-Omaha was tied for 10th and South Dakota was ranked 18th.

The other two teams included a Division I opponent, Illinois State, and Augustana, who currently has a winning record on the year.

Non-Conference Record:

Truman finished its non-conference season with a 4-5 record. The four wins ties for the team’s most in the last five years.

In 2000-01, the team went 4-4 in non-conference games and in 2002-03, the Bulldogs were also 4-5 outside of league action.

Up Next:

Truman has two home games during the week of Jan. 3-9. On Jan. 5, the Bulldogs host Missouri-Rolla. Three days later, Truman takes on nationally-ranked Emporia State.

TRUMAN 79, MISSOURI SOUTHERN 76

The Bulldogs shot a season-best 51.1% from the field as they won their MIAA opener with a 79-76 win over Missouri Southern.

Truman out-rebounded the Lions 35-24 and went to the free throw line 17 more times on its way to the victory.

The Bulldogs held the Lions scoreless over the final 2:55 of the game, which enabled them to comeback from a 76-74 deficit. Andy Calmes hit a free throw to get the Bulldogs back in the game, but missed the second shot. Derek Lindsey tipped the ball out for the offensive rebound and later in the possession, Lindsey fouled Grant Agbo for a layup to give Truman the lead for good.

Missouri Southern missed three field goal attempts and two fouls from the field in the half.

The second-half was back-and-forth early on with four ties and four lead changes. Missouri Southern took a one-point lead, 62-61, after junior Hiram Ocasio converted two free throws with 1:12 left. On the next possession, Welker came up with 11 second-half points and finished with 17 points for Truman, which made four of its five attempts from long range in the second half.

The Lions shot only 39.3% in the first half but capitalized on nine turnovers by Truman for a 33-29 lead at the break. The Bulldogs, led by 11 points from Calmes, made 48 percent of their shots in the opening half.

Missouri Southern jumped to a 38-31 lead to start the second half, but Welker’s jumper 2:27 into the period sparked the Bulldogs onto a 16-4 run.

The Lions answered with eight quick points, capped by a driving layup from senior Ameer Watts, to reclaim the lead. However, back-to-back threes from Welker set up Truman for the stretch run.

Missouri Southern took a one-point lead, 62-61, after junior Hiram Ocasio converted two free throws with 1:12 left. On the next possession, Welker took a feed from senior Matt Beran and converted a layup just 14 seconds after Ocasio’s score and the Lions couldn’t answer.

A Watts layup pulled the Lions within three with 11 seconds to play and Beran missed two free throws with eight seconds to go that could’ve iced the game.

The Lions didn’t get a good look at the basket on their ensuing possession and Watts’ running three-point attempt caromed off the backboard just before time expired.

Watts finished with 13 points and eight assists to lead Missouri Southern, which also got 12 points and six rebounds from Ocasio. Seniors Darrell Redmond and Dean Rose added 11 and 10 points, respectively, as the Lions matched season lows with three three-pointers made and an 18.8 shooting percentage from long range.

TRUMAN-67, MISSOURI SOUTHERN-64

Truman shot nearly 61 percent in the second half, and Ryan Welker made four of his five three-point attempts as the Bulldogs snapped Missouri Southern’s 15-game home-court winning streak, 67-64, on Saturday.

The Bulldogs also snapped a 23-game MIAA road losing streak and swept a conference opponent for the first time since the 1999-2000 season.

Welker came up with 11 second-half points and finished with 17 points for the Bulldogs. Andy Calmes also chipped in 17 for Truman, which made four of its five attempts from long range in the second half.

The Gorillas used a strong second-half to earn a win over Truman by a 84-65 score in Kirksville.

The game was much closer than the final score indicated. The score was tied at 24-24 with 14 minutes left in the game. Pittsburg State carried the momentum of that play into the second-half. After Truman made one of two free throws to start the half, the Gorillas went on a 19-6 run to put the Bulldogs in a large hole. The Bulldogs got as close as seven with 7:21 remaining, but Pittsburg State outscored Truman by a 22-10 margin the rest of the way.

The Gorillas shot 53.7% from the field, including 58.8% from beyond the arc. They also outrebounded Truman by 2 and had a good game from three-point range, hitting seven-of-17 shots.

Truman was led by Chip Sodemann who tied a season-high with 14 points. He hit 11-of-15 shots from the field, including three three-pointers. Chip Sodemann and Andy Calmes were also in double-figure scoring with 12 and 10 points, respectively. Matt Beran had a team-high nine rebounds.

The Gorillas' Eddie Jackson ended with a game-high 39 points. He hit 11-of-15 shots from the field, five-of-eight from three-point range and 12-of-15 from the free throw line. Jamey Richardson had a double-double with 12 points and 10 rebounds and he also blocked five shots.

PITTSBURG STATE-86, TRUMAN-80

A wild late run by the Bulldogs nearly let the team overcome a 26-point deficit, but Truman came up just short as it fell in its season finale by a 86-80 score to Pittsburg State.

The Bulldogs trailed by 16 points with under three minutes left in the game and it appeared the team's reserves would simply play out the final minutes. However, Truman went on a 19-6 run to pull within three with 18 seconds left. Garret Grimm played a big role in that spurt, scoring seven points and grabbing four rebounds.

After the Gorillas hit just one-of-two free throws with 15 seconds left, the Bulldogs turned the ball over which sealed the win for Pittsburg State.

Pittsburg State built a large lead right before halftime. The Bulldogs trailed just 31-25 at the six minute mark but the Gorillas scored 17 of the next 19 points and ended up going into the break up 50-31. Pittsburg State then scored the first seven points of the second-half to go up 26, which turned out to be just enough to hold Truman off.

Austin Kirby led the Bulldogs with 16 points on six-of-eight shooting from the field, including three three-pointers. Chip Sodemann and Andy Calmes were also in double-figure scoring with 12 and 10 points, respectively. Matt Beran had a team-high nine rebounds.

The Gorillas' Eddie Jackson ended with a game-high 39 points. He hit 11-of-15 shots from the field, five-of-eight from three-point range and 12-of-15 from the free throw line. Jamey Richardson had a double-double with 12 points and 11 rebounds and he also blocked three shots.
