This week's games:
The Truman State University women's basketball team will wrap-up the 04-05 season this week with a road game at Missouri-Rolla and a home game against Pittsburg State.

With a victory by Southwest Baptist over Pittsburg State on Saturday, the Bulldogs were eliminated from the MIAA post-season tournament that will begin next week. Missouri-Rolla was also eliminated from contention with that result.

Truman has a chance to finish the season with double-digits in the win column for the 16th time in the 35 years of the program. The Bulldogs are 9-16 overall and 2-14 in the MIAA. With a sweep of this week's games, the Bulldogs would improve on last season's 10-17 overall record.

Missouri-Rolla comes into this week's action with a 8-16 overall record and a 2-14 conference mark as well. The Miners will be hosting the Bulldogs for their final home game in the MIAA. UMR will be moving to the Great Lakes Valley Conference beginning next season and Wednesday night is the final MIAA game in Rolla. The Miners close out their season at Northwest Missouri on Saturday afternoon.

Pittsburg State can finish as high as fourth in the conference race and as low as sixth depending on the remaining two games on the schedule. The Gorillas are 9-7 in league play while sporting a 16-9 overall record. Pittsburg State will play at Missouri Southern on Wednesday night prior to their trip to Kirksville.

Last time out:
Truman women's basketball's top player Sarah Sommer returned from an injury but it wasn't effective enough to give the slumping Bulldogs a spark. The team lost its seventh-straight game, this one by a 75-57 decision to nationally-ranked Emporia State (Kan.).

The Lady Hornets won the inside battle, scoring 14 more points in the paint and out rebounding the Bulldogs by 12 boards. Emporia State also had a huge advantage at the free throw line where it made 25 shots, compared to only 14 for Truman. The Hornets shot 42.1% from the field and 71.4% from the free throw line while Truman shot just 33.9% from the field and 56.0% from the charity stripe.

The game was tight early in the first-half, with Truman trailing by just a 14-12 margin halfway through the period. An 11-2 Lady Hornet run opened things up and Emporia State eventually led 40-26 at halftime.

In the second-half, Truman went nearly six minutes without a field goal early in the half. The Bulldogs used two free throws in that span to cut the lead to seven points, but Emporia quickly ran off nine a row and Truman never threatened again.

Natalie Schupbach led the Bulldogs with a double-double of 12 points and 10 rebounds. Annie Westhoff led the team with 14 points and also had eight rebounds. Jamie Huffman was in double-figures with 10 points. Sommer was limited to 16 minutes off the bench and scored seven points with three rebounds and a steal.

Emporia State was paced by Casey Henningens with 20 points. 12 of them from the free throw line.
Andi McAlexander and Michelle Stueve each added 15 points. Michelle Brown led the team with 11 rebounds.

A shorthanded Truman Bulldogs battled Missouri Western down to the wire in Pershing Arena last Wednesday night, falling by a 65-62 score. Truman was without their leading scorer for the fifth game in a row, in Sarah Sommer but managed a strong team effort to keep the Griffons from pulling away.

The Bulldogs took a 15-9 lead with 11 minutes to go in the first half, but the Griffons responded with a 15-4 run, including 13 straight to take a 24-19 lead. The Bulldogs battled back and was able to pull within two at the break, 29-27. Brandi Rodgers paced the Griffons with 13 first half points.

In the second half, it appeared Missouri Western was going to pull away with the ballgame. After a tied 30-30 score, the Griffons went on a 13-2 run and extended it to as much 14 points with 7:45 to play. Truman could only manage 10 points during that time period.

The feisty Bulldogs then went on their own run as cut the lead to five on a 12-3 run but the Griffons were able to push the margin back to seven on a pair of free throws with 3:14 to go. A lay-up by Jamie Huffman that was set up by Kelli Floyd and a lay-up by Ali Long set up by Annie Westhoff, pulled Truman to just three with 2:15 to play. Western’s Carly Lee converted a three-point play to push the lead back to six but the Bulldogs answered back with freshman Katie Fowler’s three-pointer with 1:52 to go.

A pair of free throws by Lee was answered by Fowler with 1:02 on the clock. Westhoff made a steal on the defensive end and Fowler converted it to pull the Bulldogs to within one with :24 ticks to go. Lee had another opportunity at the line but failed on both occasions and gave the ball back to the Bulldogs with :16 to go. Long missed a shot with traffic around the basket and Eldra Paizao of the Griffons was able to make both her free throws to give Western the three-point advantage.

A desperation shot by Westhoff as the buzzer sounded from 25 feet out hit the front of the rim and would not crawl over and Missouri Western escaped with the victory.

Natalie Schupbach led the Bulldogs with 13 points, while Westhoff and Fowler each had 10 points apiece. Missouri Western was led by Lee and Rodgers 15 points. Selma Barbosa, the MIAA’s leading scorer, was limited to 11 points on 4-of-9 shooting from the field.

Catching Up With The Miners:
Missouri-Rolla has dropped four straight since winning in Pershing on Feb. 7th. In fact, that win by the Miners broke a nine game losing streak dating back to Jan. 5th.

The Miners have been competitive in all four contest loosing by six to Central Missouri, by eight at Missouri Western, by 15 at Southwest Baptist and by nine in their latest game to Washburn on Saturday.

In Saturday’s contest, the Miners took a 15-14 lead with 7:31 in the first half before the Lady Blues went on a 7-0 run and then extended the lead to as much as nine with a minute to go in the half. The Miners were able to string together four in a row to cut the margin to five heading into the locker room.

In the second half, the Miners tied the game at 26 apiece before Washburn took off on a 20-4 run and had a 46-30 lead with 11:38 to play. The Miners would get as close as eight with 5:30 to play.

Missouri-Rolla had two players in double-figures in Felicia Johns and Deoshia Agnew. Both players came off the bench to score 15 and 13 points respectively.

Washburn had four players in double-digits with Lora Westling leading all scorers with 17 points.

Only three players for the Miners are listed among conference leaders. Agnew is ranked 12th in rebounding with a 5.6 per game average, while Jamie Forsberg is 10th in steals at 1.92 a game and Emily McCord is ninth in blocked shots with 0.64 a contest.

The Miners may not have one player that puts up significant numbers when it comes to scoring but has a balanced attack with six players scoring over five points a game. Agnew is the team’s leading scorer with 9.3 points a game.

Missouri-Rolla gets most of their production inside the three-point arc. The Miners have scored 78.6% of their field goals from inside.

All-Time vs. Missouri-Rolla:
The Bulldogs swept last year’s series with the Miners but Missouri-Rolla won this year’s first meeting by a 49-46 score. Prior to that loss, the Bulldogs had won three straight.

Overall, Truman holds a 27-22 advantage over Missouri-Rolla dating back to the first meeting in 1977. Under Coach Sloop, the Bulldogs are 6-3 over the Miners.

Missouri-Rolla is one of two schools that the Bulldogs hold winning records on within the conference. The other school is Missouri Southern, but only slightly. The Bulldogs hold a 15-14 lead over the Lions.

Head Coaches:
John Sloop is in his fifth season on the bench for the Bulldogs, he has a 51-81 career coaching record. He was an assistant coach under Jack Schrader on Truman’s men’s basketball team prior to being named the eighth coach in school history.

Alan Eads is in his third season on the bench for the Miners. He has a 17-59 overall record, with this season having the most wins in his three seasons.

Eads was an assistant coach at Southeast Missouri State for eight seasons prior to joining the UMR staff. His previous head coaching experience includes a successful stint at Moberly Area Community College were he guided the Lady Greyhounds to a 199-37 record in eight seasons, including five trips to the NJCAA national tournament.

Career Marks Last Week:
Candace McGee tied a couple of career marks last week. The freshman had three assists and two steals in her first visit to Emporia, Kan. on Saturday, each tying a season and career high.

For the fourth time in her young career, Callie Sears picked up a steal in the Bulldogs home loss to Missouri Western last Wednesday.

Junior Ali Long tied her high by taking four three point shots in the game against the Griffons, it was the fourth time in her career that she had attempted four three-pointers. In that game as well, Long had a blocked shot for the sixth time in her career.

Senior Annie Westhoff had a season-high five steals against Missouri Western. The previous time Westhoff pulled off that feat was back in Kansas City at the first MIAA post-season tournament game in Municipal Auditorium against Washburn.

Checking Out The League:

With one week to go in the regular season, the eight teams that will be participating in the MIAA post-season basketball tournament in Kansas City have been set.

The only remaining speculation is the seedings and first-round matchups for the tournament. Washburn has a one game lead to the overall conference title and number one seeding over Emporia State with both teams facing each other on Wednesday night. The Hornets defeated the Lady Blues in the earlier season match-up at White Auditorium.

Central and Missouri Western are the likely next two teams that will be wearing their home uniforms for the first-round of the tournament but Missouri Southern and Pittsburg State each have a chance to move up to the fourth slot.

Northwest and Southwest Baptist will most likely face Washburn and Emporia in the first-round but will not know who will get who until after the regular season is complete on Saturday.

Schupbach Rebounding

Sophomore Natalie Schupbach was the Bulldogs leading scorer and top rebounder in last week's games.

Schupbach averaged 12.5 points per game and pulled down nine boards a game in Truman's games with Missouri Western and Emporia State. She shot 45% from the field and 70% from the line while playing in 62 of the possible 80 minutes of action.

After only scoring 33 points and 53 rebounds her freshman year, Schupbach has shown that she is going to be a team leader in the future, scoring 204 points this season (6.2 a game) and leading the team with 185 rebounds.

Westhoff Moves Up:

After cracking the top 10 with 14 points on Saturday against Emporia State, senior Annie Westhoff could finish has high as seventh in Bulldog career scoring after this week's game is complete.

Westhoff trails ninth place Sharon W fit by just a single point, then eighth place Kelli Krueser by just nine points. A 21-point effort this week would get Westhoff past Kristy Brown who had 1,168 points from 1992-96.

Tough Schedule:
The Bulldogs played eight nationally-ranked teams this season, which is most likely one of the toughest schedules in the nation.

Interestingly, 1-7 against nationally-ranked teams this season. The Bulldogs lone win was a 60-40 victory over Quincy back in November. The Hawks are currently in first-place in the Great Lakes Valley Conference.

The seven losses have come to Drury, Emporia State, Washburn and Central Missouri. Three of the four have been #1 in the poll at sometime this season. Drury and Washburn were both top ranked the week prior to playing the Bulldogs, while Emporia gained their number one ranking the following week after playing Truman.

Senior Spotlights:

With two games remaining, four Bulldog seniors are winding down their careers in the purple and white uniform.

Jamie Huffman has played in 92 games in her career scoring 664 points (7.2 ppg) and pulling down 570 rebounds (4.0 rpg). The post player is having one of her best seasons scoring this year, averaging 7.8 points per game. Twice this season, Huffman nearly broke her single-game scoring mark by hitting 18 points against Iowa Wesleyan and Washburn. Her career-high was 19 points against Emporia State on Jan. 10, 2004.

Kelli Floyd has been the floor general for the Bulldogs that last three years. She has played in every game of her Bulldog tenure, and started the last 79 consecutive games.

Floyd currently ranks seventh in team history in assists with 279, contributing 104 this season. She has averaged 6.3 points per game for her career and 7.2 this season.

Floyd has played all of her basketball in the Kirksville area, starting and playing four seasons at Kirksville High School before moving across town to Truman.

Annie Westhoff has a strong chance to finish in the Bulldogs top seven in scoring when her career winds up. Westhoff has 1,168 points and trails Kristy Brown by 21 points for the seventh spot.

Westhoff has already achieved top ten status in many other Bulldog career categories. She is fourth in three-point attempts with 365, while fifth in field goals attempted with 1,134. She is eighth in field goals made with 438, seventh in three-pointers made with 94, ninth in rebounds with 551 and seventh in steals with 150.

In 2002-03, Westhoff was named to the MIAA second-team all-conference after she scored 15.7 points per game that year, leading the team.

Sarah Sommer was a first-team all-MIAA selection last season and will leave her mark in many of the Bulldogs career and single-season lists.

For her career, Sommer has a 14.0 scoring average that ranks her sixth all-time in team history. She is also in the career top ten in field goal percentage at 44.3%, tied for eighth, fifth in three-pointers with 100, sixth in three-pointers attempted with 267, fifth in three-point percentage at 37.5%. Sommer is also the fifth best free throw shooter in team history at 77.0% and second in blocked shots with 81.

Sommer's 42.9% three-point shooting this season on 24-of-56 shooting is second in single-season accuracy from outside.

In 2003-04, Sommer had 39 blocked shots, just...

Truman vs. Missouri-Rolla

Feb. 7, 2005 - After a high scoring first-half, the Truman offense went cold in the final half which cost them the important game in the race for a MIAA tournament spot. The Bulldogs women's basketball team fell at home on Monday night to Missouri-Rolla by a 49-46 score.

It was two completely different halves in the game. In the first-half, Truman shot 51.9% from the field as it took it 35-22 lead into the break. The Bulldogs took the lead a little over three minutes into the game and did not give it up the rest of the half.

In the second-half though, the home squad could not get any offense going. After opening up a 41-32 lead by the first media timeout, Truman scored just five points the rest of the game. For the half, the Bulldogs made just 17% from the field and turned the ball over 13 times. Missouri-Rolla's offense was nearly as cold, which kept the game close.

The game was tied with eight minutes remaining after Jamie Huffman hit a field goal, the last one by Truman in the game. Missouri-Rolla hit two free throws at the 5:03 mark to take the lead and spark a 6-1 run which gave the Miners a 49-44 lead. Truman cut it to three with two free throws just under a minute remaining and forced a turnover to give itself a chance to tie the game. The Miners' defense forced the Bulldogs to run a time out off and a Truman three-point try with six seconds remaining was off the mark and the clock ran out before either team got control of the loose ball.

Natalie Schupbach led Truman with 16 points and a career-high 14 rebounds. She hit her first seven shots of the game, six of them in the first-half, but missed four shots during the Bulldogs' cold stretch. Annie Westhoff added 14 points and Jamie Huffman chipped in with nine. Truman received just seven points though from the rest of the squad.

Pittsburg State was had players in double-figures with Megan Rippon scoring a career-high 18 points in the victory. Ripponett was 6-7 from the field, including eight straight during the early 1-2 run.

The Gorillas improve to 8-3 overall and 1-1 in conference play.

Truman vs. Pittsburg State

Jan. 2, 2005 – The Truman women's basketball team ended their three-game road swing with a tough 85-55 loss to Pittsburg State on Sunday afternoon at John Lance Arena. The Bulldogs started the road trip with a 7-1 record but ended their travels with a 7-4 mark and 0-2 in conference play.

The Bulldogs took an early 4-3 lead, then trailed 9-7 before the Gorillas went on a 12-0 run and built up a decisive 47-20 half-time lead. Pitt State shot 62% from the field in the first half while was 50-24 and 0-12 from the three in the first frame.

Candace McGe's three-pointer midway through the second half ended a 0-0 drought from behind the arc, but the Bulldogs could only make two more from outside and finished 3-16 of 22. Sarah Sonmer led the Bulldogs with 16 points.

Pittsburg State was had players in double-figures with Megan Rippon scoring a career-high 18 points in the victory. Ripponett was 6-7 from the field, including eight straight during the early 1-2 run.

The Gorillas improve to 8-3 overall and 1-1 in conference play.
