Women's Soccer Has Seven Players Committed For Next Year

Head Coach Mike Cannon of the Truman women’s soccer team has announced the addition of seven players to the 2005 season. The Bulldogs finished the 2004 season with a school record 19-1-2 mark, making their fourth consecutive trip to the NCAA post-season tournament and winning their sixth straight Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association championship.

Kim Wolff (St. Louis, Mo./Incarnate Word Academy)
Member of the 2004 Missouri State champions in class two and a third place finish in 2003. She was a first team all-conference selection and a St. Louis Post-Dispatch all-metro soccer honorable mention recipient. She has received academic honors throughout high school and was a member of the National Honor Society.

Kelsey Richters (Lincoln, Neb./Lincoln East High)
A three year varsity starter and member of state runner-up squad in 2003, and state champions in 2004. Richters has been named all-state, all-conference and all-city as a soccer player in her career at Lincoln East. This past fall, she completed four years on the varsity cross country team, lettering each year. A three time academic letter winner and a member of the National Honor Society.

Katie Buning (Kansas City, Mo./St. Thomas Aquinas)
Buning started for her varsity team each year in school and was captain in both her junior and senior campaigns. She was named the team’s “Most Improved Player” in her junior year and was also named to the Eastern Kansas League all-conference second team. Buning also participated in cross country.

Lindsey Krieg (St. Louis, Mo./Duchesne High School)
Krieg was the most valuable player for her team as a freshman and was named to the all-conference sportsmanship team as a junior. She has also been named all-conference academic for soccer and for tennis. Academically, she is a member of the President’s List, National Honor Roll and the National Society of High School Scholars.

Alaina Richarz (St. Louis, Mo./Duchesne High School)
Richarz was named honorable mention all-state and second team all-conference her junior season. In her sophomore season, Richarz was the team’s assists leader. She has also participated in basketball and cross country, picking up first team all-conference in 2002. She is a member of the Dean’s List.

Brigitte Pohren (Omaha, Neb./Ducheshe Academy)
Pohren was an honorable mention all-state selection after her junior season at Ducheshe Academy. She was the team captain last year and has been named again for her upcoming senior season. She has participated in four sports in high school, besides soccer, Pohren has played basketball, ran cross country and was on the swimming team. She is a member of the National Honor Society and a recipient of the Ducheshe prize in Chemistry.

Rachel Mayfield (St. Joseph, Mo./St. Joseph Central)
Mayfield has signed a national letter of intent to play for the Bulldogs next year as a center midfielder. She was the St. Joe News-Press player of the year her junior season, while also the team’s most valuable player and first-team all-conference and all-city selection. She is currently the all-time assist leader at Central with 32 goals and 20 assists after her junior year. She was a second team all-conference selection her sophomore year and an honorable mention pick her freshman campaign.
