For the third time in the last four years, the NCAA South Central Regional will take place at Pershing Arena in Kirksville, Mo. Truman, which has advanced to the tournament for the fifth straight year, earned the number one seed for the regional and will host the first three rounds of the NCAA Tournament on Thursday through Saturday.

The Bulldogs will enter regional play with a 32-0 overall record and a number three national ranking. The team added a MIAA tournament championship to this year’s resume last week. After barely escaping Pittsburg State in the semifinals by a 3-2 score, the team won the championship match in a convincing fashion with a 3-0 victory over Central Missouri.

Getting through the regional will not be an easy task for Truman as the South Central Regional is one of the toughest of the eight regions. Three other teams are nationally-ranked as Central Missouri is No. 10, Washburn is No. 15 and North Alabama is No. 19. Harding is receiving votes as well in the national poll and Pittsburg State was nationally-ranked for four polls this year.

Regional Notes:
The NCAA Volleyball Tournament expanded to 64 teams this season, meaning eight teams will be competing at this year’s regional, up from six in past seasons. The winner of the regional will face the champion of the Northeast region in the first round of the NCAA Elite Eight. The past two seasons, the winner of the South Central Region has had success at the Elite Eight. In 2002, Truman advanced to the NCAA Championship match while last season, North Alabama won the national title.

Scouting the South Central Regional Teams:
Central Missouri (29-6, 13-3 MIAA)
Central Missouri earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament after finishing second in MIAA regular season and tournament play. The Jennies, who are making their 22nd straight appearance in the NCAA Tournament, are looking to take one step farther this year after reaching the championship game last season.

The Jennies have one of the top defenses in the country, ranking in the top 10 in digs and holding opponents to a .155 hitting percentage for the season. The team is also ranked nationally in assists and kills.

Offensively, setter Kaci Young runs the offense and she has a team-high 12.21 assist average. Elyse Mohne leads the team with a 4.39 kills a game and a .364 hitting percentage. Becki Haug is averaging 3.41 kills a game and is hitting .343. Defensively, Katie Tarka is one of the nation’s top liberos, averaging 6.70 digs a game. Andrea Robertson is the team’s leading blocker with just over one a game.

Peggy Martin is in her 29th season as the head coach of Central Missouri. She has a career coaching record of 947-246-8 at the school.

Washburn (28-6, 12-4 MIAA)
Washburn earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament after finishing third in the MIAA regular season. The Lady Blues have advanced to their second NCAA Tournament and are looking for their first NCAA Tournament victory.

Washburn leads the MIAA in blocking and service aces and are nationally-ranked in kills, assists, blocks and hitting percentage.

Leading the way is the duo of Dani McHenry and Emily Foster who are both averaging over four kills a game. Julie Sackman is the team’s setter and is averaging over 11 assists. Wendy Kobbeman has
Head Coach Qi Wang

Qi Wang (pronounced Chee Wong) is in his fourth season as the head volleyball coach at Truman and his eighth year as a member of the Bulldog coaching staff. Wang came to Truman in 1997 as an assistant coach and the Bulldogs have enjoyed unprecedented success since that time. Since taking over the head coaching reins in 2001, he has taken Truman to the next level and the team is now one of the elite programs in NCAA Division II.

In his first year as head coach, the Bulldogs compiled a 37-2 overall record, the best winning percentage in the nation. The team won the South Central regional for the first time in school history, but were knocked out of the NCAA Tournament in the quarterfinals.

In 2002, Truman won its second straight South Central region championship and advanced all the way to the NCAA championship game before being knocked out of the national tournament. The team ended the year with a 28-9 record and finished with a No. 2 ranking in the final national poll. Wang earned his second regional coach of the year honor and was also named Division II National Coach of the Year by the American Volleyball Coaches Association.

Last season, the Bulldogs went 15-1 in conference play and won the conference tournament. They were picked to host the regional but were upset in the first round. Truman has gone 9-0 this season against opponents in the South Central regional, with three wins over Central Missouri and Pittsburg State, two wins over Washburn and one over Harding.

Truman and its first-round opponent, Albany State, have never met before in volleyball. The Bulldogs trail the all-time series with Central Missouri by a 49-19-3 margin, but Truman has won the last 11 matches.

North Alabama (24-6, 11-1 GSC)
The defending national champions earned the Gulf South automatic bid after winning the conference tournament last weekend. The Lions are in the NCAA Tournament for the ninth straight year.

North Alabama is 20-2 after opening the season with a 4-4 record. Opponents are hitting just .131 against the Lions this season.

North Alabama's head coach is Laura Taube. Taube is in her 11th season as head coach, all as a Charger, and has a coaching record of 295-263-2.

Albany State (22-14, 8-0 SIAC)
Albany State is another regular at the NCAA tournament, making its fourth straight appearance. The Lady Rams advanced after winning the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference tournament last weekend.

Albany State comes into the tournament on a roll, winning 12 of its last 13 matches, with the one loss coming to a NCAA Division I school.

Bulldogs vs. Regional Opponents:

Truman has gone 9-0 this season against opponents in the South Central regional, with three wins over Central Missouri and Pittsburg State, two wins over Washburn and one over Harding.

Truman and its first-round opponent, Albany State, have never met before in volleyball.

Head coach of the Lady Blues is Chris Herron. Herron is in his ninth season as a head coach and has an overall mark of 91-107.

MIAA Players of the Week:

Jessica Sears and Christine Wagener earned MIAA player of the week honors for their play during the MIAA Tournament.

For Sears, it was her first of the season and fourth of her career. For Wagener, it was the second MIAA honor of her career, both coming this year.

The only other Bulldog to receive MIAA player of the week honors this season was Sarah Shearman who was the Hitter of the Week once.

Bulldogs 2004 Season In Review:

Despite losing an all-American setter, Truman still had very high expectations. Returning five starters, including an all-American and the National Freshman of the Year, the Bulldogs looked to improve on their disappointing regional loss in 2003.

Truman opened the season in Jacksonville, Fla., at the North Florida Tournament. Here they faced three nationally-ranked teams, but did not drop a single game. The next weekend they traveled north to Allendale, Mich., to participate in the Grand Valley State tournament, facing yet another nationally-ranked opponent. The Bulldogs dropped their first games of the season, but won all four matches to improve their record to 8-0.

After a match with NAIA power, Columbia College, the Bulldogs opened up MIAA play with rival Central Missouri at Warrensburg. Losing the first two games, the Bulldogs fought back and won the match, 3-2.

Truman was then able to return to Pershing Arena and take on Emporia State and Washburn. The Bulldogs won both MIAA contests.

The Bulldogs spent the next two weekends on the road and picked up five more MIAA victories. Returning home, Truman again matched up with Central Missouri, and again dropped the two of the first three games before coming back to win the match, 3-2. The Bulldogs then went on a 13-match stretch in which they only dropped three games. That stretch culminated in the final regular season game with Pittsburg State. The victory over the Gorillas gave the Bulldogs a 30-4 record, making them the first conference school to go undefeated in the regular season.

After a Senior Night exhibition win over Indian Hills Community College, Truman prepared for the MIAA postseason tournament. Meeting up with Pittsburg State in the semifinal, the Bulldogs survived a 2-1 deficit to win the match 3-2. Truman then met Central Missouri in the championship match. Unlike in their two previous meetings, the Bulldogs jumped out quickly and defeated the Jennies 3-0.

Truman enters NCAA Tournament play with a 32-0 record, just the fifth time in school history the team has hit the 30-win plateau.

Bulldogs In The National Poll:

Truman has not seen much movement in the AVCA National Coaches Poll this season. The Bulldogs were ranked eighth in the preseason and moved to third by the third poll of the year. Since then, they have been stuck at that spot as the two teams above them, Nebraska-Kearney and UC-San Diego, have not lost.

Truman has now been ranked in the top 10 for 28 consecutive polls released by the AVCA, a streak going back to the final poll of the 2002 season. Only two schools have currently been ranked in the top 10 longer than the Bulldogs.

Bulldogs Vs. Ranked Teams:
Truman is 130-0 this season against teams that have been ranked at some point this season in the AVCA Top 25 Division II poll.
Included in that are five victories over teams in the current top 10 with wins over North Florida, Tampa and three over Central Missouri.
The Bulldogs also recorded a victory over Columbia College, which is ranked third at the NAIA level, and an exhibition victory over Indian Hills, which is ranked 10th at the NJCAA level.

Unbeaten Teams:
Truman is one of three unbeaten teams in the NCAA Division II ranks.
Nebraska-Kearney is currently ranked first in the country with a 36-0 overall record. The graduate assistant coach of Nebraska-Kearney is former Bulldog all-American Monica Marlowe.
Central Washington is currently ranked 11th in the national poll and has a 26-0 record.

All-MIAA Team:
Eight Bulldogs were named to the all-MIAA team, released last week prior to the MIAA Tournament.
Jessica Sears and Sarah Shearman were first team picks. Sears earned the honor for the second straight year while Shearman was named first-team for the first time.
Micaela Walter earned second-team honors, her first accolade from the MIAA.
Honorable mention honors went to Rebecca Knefelkamp, Lauren Dickbernd, Annie Nickolai, Tiffany Graham and Megan Remley.

Academic All-District:
Sarah Shearman was named to the second-team academic all-district by members of CoSIDA. She was the only sophomore listed on either the first or second-teams.

National Leaders:
Through Oct. 31, Truman ranked first in the nation in assists, second in kills, 12th in digs and 25th in hitting percentage.

Pershing Arena:
Over the last five years, Truman is 62-5 at home. That includes a 1-0 record during the 2004 season. In those 11 matches, the Bulldogs lost just six games.

30-Win Season:
Truman won 30 matches this year, the fifth time in school history that it has reached the 30-win plateau. Four of those seasons have come in the last five years.
The Bulldogs passed the 20-win mark for the 15th straight season. Truman has finished better than .500 in each of those years, tying for ninth in the NCAA Division II record book for consecutive winning seasons.

Winning Streak:
Truman’s 42-match winning streak is the longest in school history, besting the 26 straight victories compiled by the 2001 Bulldog squad. The Bulldogs’ streak is currently the 13th-longest in NCAA Division II history.

Team Record:
The Bulldogs are on pace to set new team season records for kill average and assist average. Truman is currently averaging 17.41 kills and 15.96 assists a game. The old marks, both set last season, are 17.14 kills and 15.81 assists a game.

Outstanding Senior Class:
The 2004 senior class of Lauren Dickbernd, Rebecca Knefelkamp, Annie Nickolai and Jessica Sears have helped make the Truman volleyball program into one of the premier programs in Division II volleyball. In their four years of playing, Truman has amassed an amazing 128-16 record. They have won three MIAA titles, two MIAA tournament titles and have advanced to the NCAA tournament four times.

Balanced Attack:
Truman has one of the top offenses in the country thanks to a balanced offensive attack that makes it impossible for the opposition to key on just one or two players.
Six different Bulldog players have played in at least half the games and are averaging over two kills a game. Four of those six players are hitting .296 or better.
Sarah Shearman leads the team with a 4.06 kill average and she also has a team-high .306 hitting percentage.
Jessica Sears is hitting a career-best .300 and is second on the team with a 3.50 kill average.
Micaela Walter is third with a 2.66 kill average, followed by Kelsey Wackerman (2.52), Tiffany Graham (2.41) and Megan Remley (2.19).

Specialist Play:
With the loss of All-American setter Rachel Shedd last season, the Bulldogs have gone to a two-setter system this year.
Rebecca Knefelkamp and Christine Wagener have been the main setters for a Bulldog offense which has one of the best hitting percentage in school history. Wagener leads the team with a 6.76 average and Knefelkamp is averaging 6.46 assists a game.
Lauren Dickbernd is also in a new role as the team’s libero. She currently leads the team with 3.52 digs a game.

Career Record List:
Jessica Sears will end her Bulldog career ranked in numerous Truman career categories. Among the top ones are ranking fifth in kills (1,537) and third in service aces (153) and digs (1,550).
Micaela Walter has joined Truman’s top 10 block list this year. She ranks tied for seventh in solo blocks (54), seventh in block assists (194) and sixth in total blocks (248). Tiffany Graham has also joined two of those categories as she is eighth in block assists (181) and ninth in total blocks (215).
