HEAD COACH DAVID SCHUTTER

David Schutter, in his 20th season as the Bulldogs’ head coach, has guided eight of Truman’s 11 all-Americans, including six two-time all-Americans. Under his direction, team members have made 36 individual appearances at the NCAA Division II meet.

In 2004, Schutter guided Merrick Meyer to the 141-pound NCAA Division II national championship. It was the first national champion in the program since 1968. He led the Bulldogs to fifth-place finishes at the Midwest regional championships four times, some of the best regional finishes in school history. Schutter was the Mid-South Wrestling Association coach of the year for the 1996-97 season, and was named the Midwest regional coach of the year in 1992-93.

He has compiled over 80 wins in the last 19 seasons at Truman, the most by any Bulldog coach, and guided the ‘Dogs to their only undefeated season at 11-0-1 in 1992-93.

Schutter’s teams have also enjoyed success in the classroom as all of his squads have placed among the top 10 on the National Wrestling Coaches Association list of academic teams for NCAA Division II. His squad has won the team Academic National Championships three straight season’s and five times overall. The first Division II school to win three straight and ties Colorado Mines with five academic titles.

He began his collegiate wrestling career at Indiana University under Olympic champion Doug Blubaugh, compiling a record of 17-9 at 118 pounds. Schutter transferred to Indiana State the following year and moved up to 126 pounds for the next three years. He won six tournament titles and was the runner-up once. Schutter finished third in the NCAA Division I Midwest Regionals. He received a political science degree from Indiana State in 1986.

From 1987-90, he served in the U.S. Army, spending most of his military career as a member of the all-Army wrestling team. Schutter competed in the Inter-Service Championships, U.S. Nationals and the Olympic Trials, and won numerous open tournaments while stationed in Wruzberg, Germany. He also won the U.S. Army European Freestyle and Greco-roman Championship at 136.5. He had a cumulative record of 277-33-5 and was a finalist for the 1988 Olympic Trials.

In 1990, while training at the Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs, Schutter suffered a career-ending neck injury at the height of a promising Greco-Roman wrestling career. Schutter then coached the Wruzberg team that won the VII Corps freestyle and Greco-Roman championships in Europe.

Schutter believes in a theory of constantly striving to improve and in coaching a scholar-athlete, an athlete whose most important goal is to graduate with honors.

He has a son, Dakota and a daughter Kami and is married to his wife Jennifer.

Curd Alexander became the first Bulldog to capture a national crown at the 1968 College Division National tournament, held in Mankato, Minn. The sophomore from Edwardsville, Ill. had an impressive season going 25-6 and winning the MIAA championship at 115 before the national meet.

Alexander won his first match by an 11-3 score and his second round match by a 14-8 tally before ousting hometown competitor Jerry Berning of Mankato by a 4-2 score. Alexander won the semi-final match by a 12-5 score but needed overtime to defeat Greg Schmidt of South Dakota State, 2-1 for the championship.

Alexander was the first Missouri collegiate wrestler to ever win a national title and posed a career record of 60-16-4 with 18 pinfalls.

Championship Route
Def. Chris Katayama (St. Olaf) 11-3
Def. Andy Matviak (Wilkes) 14-8
Def. Jerry Berning (Mankato) 4-2
Def. Bill Simpson (Morningside) 12-5
Def. Greg Schmidt (So. Dakota State.) 2-1 (OT)
No one wrestler has accomplished what Merrick Meyer did in his four years for the Bulldogs. After a freshman season in which he went 32-11 and went to the national tournament, Meyer became a national contender for the title during his sophomore season. Merrick won the 141-bracket at the NCAA Midwest regional held in Kirksville as the number three seed. He went on to the national tournament and came up just short, falling in the championship bout to Shane Barnes by a 15-3 score.

Meyer used that match as a motivation for the following season as he cruised to a 30-6 mark during the season but had to rally in the regional to a third place finish to get to Mankato for the national tournament.

Meyer was all business at the meet, sweeping through the 141-bracket to face Barnes again in the championship match. Meyer’s 6-3 win over Barnes gave him the national title and the first since 1968 for the Bulldogs.

He ended up going to the national tournament for the fourth straight year during his senior season but an overtime loss in the quarterfinals and a 4-2 defeat in the wrestlebacks ended the storied career of Meyer as a Bulldogs. He finished as the career record holder in wins with a 130-26 mark and two-time all-American.

Championship Route

Def. Pacifico Garcis (San Fran State) 6-0
Def. Eli Dominguez (Nebraska-Omaha) by Fall 2:51
Def. Jason Rhoten (Minnesota-Mankato) by Maj. Dec. 15-1
Def. Shane Barnes (Adams State) 6-3

WRESTLING IN THE MIAA

From 1965-1986 Wrestling was a championship sport within the Missouri Intercollegiate Athletics Association (MIAA).

The Bulldogs won five MIAA titles (1968, 69, 70, 78, 79) during those years and had 33 individual conference champions.

Ralph Manning was the MIAA Coach of the Year in 1978 and five Bulldogs were named the league’s most outstanding wrestler (Curd Alexander - 68, Glenn DeHart - 74, Mike Duffy - 79, Tim DeHart - 82 and Roger Osweiler - 83).

With the addition of Nebraska-Omaha and Fort Hays State into the league, now Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association, the four schools affiliated with the conference have met one day a year for a round-robin dual meet entitled “The MIAA Duals.”

It began in 2009 at the University of Central Missouri and in 2010 at Fort Hays State.

AARON BERNS MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

This scholarship was established in 1991 by friends and family of Aaron Berns, a junior at Truman. Berns was in a tragic auto accident north of Columbia on Highway 63.

Berns compiled an overall record of 34-39-2 as a freshman and sophomore at Truman. The 134-pounder competed in the 1991 NCAA Division II Championships, the first wrestler at the school to participate in the national tournament since the 1982-83 season.

In high school, he was a four-year letterwinner at North Fayette High in West Union, Iowa. He posted a career record of 77-28-1 and was a two-time qualifier for the Iowa State meet and a three-time sectional champion.

He was a team captain and member of Phi Kappa Tau fraternity.

One scholarship is given annually to either a Bulldog wrestler or member of Phi Kappa Tau fraternity.

TRUMAN ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

For bio information on each one of these Bulldogs, visit the Hall of Fame section at TrumanBulldogs.com

(denotes year inducted)
The Bulldog Wrestling team has been named the NCAA Division II Wrestling Coaches Association Academic National Champions five times in the 16 years since the award has been presented. Truman is the first school to win the championship in three consecutive years and ties Colorado School of Mines with five total Academic National Championships.

The Bulldogs have won the award in 1996-97, 2001-02, 2006-07, 2007-08 and 2008-09. The team GPA is calculated by averaging the cumulative grade point average of ten wrestlers from each team of which eight of those wrestlers must have competed in their team’s NCAA Division II Super Regional. The Bulldogs had a team GPA in 2008-09 of 3.467.
