2004 Team Captains
Anna Sonderman, Ellen Wright, Sara Murray

2004 Bulldog Women's Soccer team will bring stability in all facets of their game to the new season. The defending five-time Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association champions have already been slated by conference coaches to claim the top spot again in a growing and competitive league.

Head Coach Mike Cannon's squad would not only like to repeat as conference champions but advance farther than any other Truman team in the NCAA post-season tournament. The last two years the Bulldogs have received berths into the national tournament only to be eliminated in the first round. The last two years the Bulldogs have received berths into the national tournament only to be eliminated in the first round.

The quarterback of the squad is senior Anna Sonderman. She was third on the team in scoring and named first-team all-MIAA and second team all-region.

The other midfielders are juniors Molly Benson, Lauren Cepicky and sophomores Robyn Mortenson, Katie Buehler, Melissa Snodgrass and Maureen Bylina. Newcomers include Rachael Schmidt and Katie Ruefer.

Benson, Cepicky and Mortenson were each named to the all-conference teams and bring speed and quickness to the midfield.

BACKS
Two seniors anchor the Bulldog defense. Stephanie Cepicky and Lisa Manns will patrol and control the area around the Truman net. This duo helped the team only give up 12 goals all of 2003.

Junior Asdis Finnsdottir, sophomores Addie Arment and Kera Reilly along with freshmen Katelyn Talcott will also provide a strong defense for the Bulldogs.

GOALKEEPERS
The keeper position will be handled by sophomore Lauren Davis. With 13 shutouts a year ago, Davis has already established herself as one of the top net-minders in the nation. She placed on the first-team all-MIAA as a freshman and a second-team all-region selection. The only two losses Davis had in 2003 were both at the hands of Nebraska-Omaha.

Freshman Emily Roark will compete with Davis in the nets for the Bulldogs, which will be an asset for Coach Cannon. In 2003, the Bulldogs only had Davis on the squad as a goalkeeper for a majority of the year. Roark will provide some stability and insurance at the keeper position.

FORWARDS
Leading the way will be senior Sara Murray, who through only three seasons, owns the Bulldog career mark in points with 117. Not only is Murray the reigning conference MVP, first-team all-region and first-team all-American, she is four goals away from the Bulldog career mark, tied for first in career assists and second on the career shots list.

Murray is surrounded upfront with strong talent, including senior Ellen Wright, juniors Sara Ramza, Rachael McCarville, Chayil Wiedeman and sophomore Lauren Hawks.

Wright was second on the team in goals scored last season and was also named to the all-conference and all-region teams.

MIDFIELD
Truman's midfield will rank as one of the best in the nation with their ability to get the ball to the forwards and their ability to help out on defense.

The 2004 Truman State University Women's Soccer Season Preview

The Bulldogs will once again have a schedule that will prepare them for post-season play. Every game on the schedule will be an important game within the region and conference. Regional games in the great north will start the season as the Bulldogs will play North Dakota and Minnesota-Duluth. UND was the number one seed a year ago in the Central Region tournament.

Mike Cannon enters his 12th season at Truman and is the most successful coach to ever lead the Bulldogs during the last 20 years of the program’s existence.

The 2003 season was the single-best regular season in school history with the team posting a 18-1-1 mark and advancing to the NCAA Division II tournament for the third consecutive time and fourth time during his tenure. The team dropped the opening round game at Nebraska-Omaha and finished with a overall record of 18-2-1.

Cannon also guided his squad to a fifth consecutive Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association title with perfect 14-0 mark. He was once again named the MIAA Coach of the Year by his peers, earning the award for the fifth time.

In 2002, Cannon’s team reached the national tournament for the third time during his tenure, beating Northern Colorado in the first round before falling to No. 1 seed and eventual national runner-up Nebraska-Omaha. The win over UNC was Cannon’s 125th.

His 2001 team posted the most wins ever (18) and was the No. 1 team in the Central region, earning a first-round bye in the NCAA tourney that year. Cannon was later named Central region coach of the year that season.

With a career record of 143-52-16 (.715), Cannon is the winningest coach in Truman women’s soccer history, and is ranked tied for 14th by percentage and 15th by victories among NCAA Division II active coaches with a minimum of five years on the job. He also comes in fourth by percentage on the list of active and inactive coaches with 10 or more years in the DII ranks, and is 15th on that list according to number of victories.

In 1997, he led the Bulldogs to their first playoff appearance and advanced the team to the NCAA Division II quarterfinals. That year, Cannon became Truman’s winningest coach with a 3-0 win over Baker University on Sept. 27. He posted his 100th career victory in 2001 in a 3-0 defeat of MIAA rival Northwest Missouri.

Cannon was named head coach of the Bulldogs in 1993 after serving as an assistant coach for the Truman men’s soccer team in 1992. From 1988-91, Cannon played for Truman as a marking back and midfielder and was named the team’s most valuable player his senior year.

As a junior, he was selected as the Bulldogs’ most improved player for his contribution during a campaign in which the men’s team qualified for the DII playoffs for the first time.

During the summers of 1996 and 1997, Cannon spent time on the pitch as a defender for the Des Moines Menace of the United Systems of Independent Soccer Leagues (now called the United Soccer League). He was selected to play in the USISL all-star game in ‘96 and served as team captain in ‘97. Cannon’s efforts helped lead the Menace to the regional playoffs both years.

He graduated in 1992 from Truman with a bachelor’s degree in English.

STUDENT ASSISTANT

BETH WIEMAN

Beth Wieman steps from inside the lines to outside as she will assist Cannon in 2003. She was a four-year defensive starter for the Bulldogs, starting in all but two games in her collegiate career.

Wieman was an honorable mention all-MIAA selection her freshman season, first-team her sophomore year, second-team in her junior campaign and a first-team selection following her senior season.

For her career, she had five goals and five assists for 15 points. A native of St. Louis, Wieman is an exercise science/pre-Med major.
