Through her junior season, Murray was already the Bulldogs career leader in points with 117, second in goals scored with 44 and tied for first in assists with 29.

In 2003, Sara Murray became the first Bulldog player to earn NSCAA First-team All-America honors. Murray shattered nearly every Truman and Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association career record in 2003. Murray was ranked 9th in the nation in assists and tied for 13th in points. She has earned three NSCAA first-team all-region honors, three first-team all-MIAA awards and was last year’s conference MVP. Murray was also named a second-team academic all-America according to CoSIDA in 2003.

Through her junior season, Murray was already the Bulldogs career leader in points with 117, second in goals scored with 44 and tied for first in assists with 29.

Emily Huyck was named an NSCAA/adidas second-team all-America in 2001 after leading the nation with an 0.38 goals against average as the Bulldogs earned their first-ever home game in the NCAA Division II postseason tournament. She shut out a Truman record of 43 opponents from 1998-01.

Jennifer Buscher became the team’s first two-time all-America at the conclusion of the 2002 campaign when she was named the the NSCAA’s second-team. She was named a third-team all-America in 2001. A defender, Buscher helped the ‘Dogs make the NCAA tournament her final two seasons, and was an important cog in the Truman defense that led the nation with a 0.38 goals against average and allowed just 4.4 shots on goal per game and eight goals all season in 2001. Buscher also assisted in setting the school’s team record for shutouts that season as the Bulldogs held 15 foes to a nil score in ‘01.

After missing the 2000 season with an injury, Buscher made up for lost time by helping the ‘Dogs reach the NCAA Division II postseason tournament for the second time in the University’s history, and their first-ever chance to host an NCAA game.
In 1996, Chris Zitko became the first Truman women's soccer player to be named the National Soccer Coaches Association of America All-American team. Zitko, a second-team pick, was a leading defender for the Bulldogs between 1993-96. After being used mostly as a reserve her freshman season, she broke into the starting lineup for most of the 1994 campaign. In her junior year, Zitko tallied 'Dogs between 1993-96.

In 2003, Sara Murray became the second Bulldog to receive the honor. Murray was named to the second-team.

Academic All-American

In 1996, Chris Zitko became the first Truman women's soccer player to be named the National Soccer Coaches Association of America All-American athlete. Zitko, a second-team pick, was a leading defender for the Bulldogs between 1993-96.
