2004 Ken B. Jones Award Winners
Sara Murray (Truman) & Clint Prange (NWMS)
The 1997 squad was the first team in school history to qualify for the NCAA Tournament, after a couple of near misses.

The first round gave the Bulldogs a chance to avenge a defeat at the hands of St. Joseph’s College, which won the No. 1 seed in the Central region after beating the ‘Dogs 2-1 earlier in the season. The weather provided an extra opponent for each team as the match started late due to wind and snow. Late in the second half the Toczylowski sisters, Carie and Stephanie, broke through with the only goal of the match. Less than ideal conditions again plagued the ‘Dogs in the quarterfinals. This time, it was rain and mud at West Virginia Wesleyan. The pitch, a veritable swamp in the middle, forced the teams to play wide and slowed action.

With 45 minutes to go in regulation and 500 spectators looking on, Wesleyan’s offense heated up. A corner shot at 79:10 slipped past Truman keeper Jenny Miller. The ‘Dogs went into overdrive the last 10 minutes and threatened in the 85th minute, but couldn’t send one home.

The 2001 squad was the first team in school history to host the NCAA Division II Central regional tournament at the Truman Soccer Park.

For the third consecutive year, the Bulldogs again used their strong regular season showing to propel themselves into the National Tournament. Once again, Omaha, Neb. was the destination and the Mavericks of UNO awaited the Bulldogs.

After an early neutral site loss to UNO back in September in which the Bulldogs were shutout 2-0, the team came into the match with an 18 game unbeaten streak and a 12 game winning streak. Eleven minutes into the game, junior Sara Murray hit the back of the net off a pass from junior Stephanie Cepicky to give Truman a 1-0 lead. Ten minutes later, UNO tied the score on a goal by Ashley Graves.

Following a halftime intermission with the teams knotted at one, UNO’s Haley Fries burst the Bulldog national championship dreams with a goal in the 60th minute.

In the 78th minute, Jessica Dotson added an insurance goal to allow UNO to advance to the second round with a 3-1 victory over Truman.

Truman finished the season with an impressive 18-2-1 record with both losses at the hands of UNO.

The 2002 squad was the first team in school history to win the NCAA Tournament.

In 2002, UNC was again to be Truman’s first post season hurdle. And again the Bulldogs dispensed of the Bears, 1-0.

The ‘Dogs took two shots on goal in the first half to the Bears four. And Truman goalie Lisa Schmalz made four of her five saves in that period. Schmalz claimed her 11th shutout of the year in all 90 minutes of work.

Truman scored when junior Angie Schuhler sent the ball down the right side to senior forward Becky Djuke who got it up to sophomore forward Ellen Wright for the header. The No. 3 seed, Truman would now face the top seed in the Central region and third-ranked team in the nation, Nebraska-Omaha. UNO dominated both offensively and defensively in its 5-0 victory, allowing the Bulldogs nine shots for the game, and just one on goal. The Mavs went on to fall just one game short of national title.
Bulldog Women’s Soccer
All-Americans

SARA MURRAY

1st Team Forward (2003-2004)

The only first-team all-American in school history, Murray repeated the honor in 2004 while leading the Bulldogs to an unbeaten regular season, sixth consecutive MIAA title and fourth-straight NCAA tournament appearance.

Besides owning all of the Truman and MIAA scoring marks, she was named the female winner of the Ken B. Jones Award. The award is given to the top male and female student-athlete regardless of sport in the conference. She was the first soccer player and first Truman female student-athlete to receive the honor.

She was a four-time first-team all-conference and all-region selection as well as freshman of the year in the league in 2001 and MVP in 2003. Murray was also a two-time second-team academic all-American.

ANNA SONDERMAN

2nd Team Midfielder (2004)

Anna Sonderman was a steady force in the Bulldog midfield for four years and was rewarded her senior year by being named to the second-team all-America squad by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America. In 2004, Sonderman was third on the team in points with 20 on six goals and eight assists.

A three-time all-region pick and first-team all-conference selection, Sonderman was a focal point of a team that outscored their opponents 45-9 in 2004, including 15 shutouts.

Sonderman finished her career ranked third all-time in assists with 24 and eighth in points and ninth in goals. During her four years on the pitch, Sonderman helped contribute to 55 shutouts and an overall record of 71-9-5.

She has been apart of fourth straight MIAA championships and NCAA post-season appearances.

LAUREN DAVIS

3rd Team Goalkeeper (2004)

Lauren Davis has followed the tradition of strong goalkeeping for the Bulldogs under Coach Mike Cannon. Davis became the second Bulldog netminder to earn all-American honors in the program history after a stellar 2004 season.

Of the 22 games played that year, Davis recorded a school and conference single-season record, 15 shutouts. She finished fourth in all of the NCAA Division II among keepers in goals-against average with a 0.40. Davis allowed only nine goals in the 22 games and went six consecutive contests without allowing a tally.

She was named first-team all-conference for the second straight year and first-team all-region for the first time in leading the Bulldogs to their sixth-straight conference title and fourth straight trip to the NCAA Division II national tournament.

JENNIFER BUSCHER

Jennifer Buscher became the team’s first two-time all America at the conclusion of the 2002 campaign when she was named the NSCAA’s second-team. She was named a third-team all-America in 2001. A defender, Buscher helped the ‘Dogs make the NCAA tournament final two seasons, and was an important cog in the Truman defense that led the nation with a 0.38 goals against average and allowed just 4.4 shots on goal per game and eight goals all season in 2001. Buscher also assisted in setting the school’s team record for shutouts that season as the Bulldogs held 15 foes to a nil score in ’01.

After missing the 2000 season with an injury, Buscher made up for lost time by helping the ‘Dogs reach the NCAA Division II postseason tournament for the second time in the University’s history, and their first-ever chance to host an NCAA game.

EMILY HUYCK

Second Team Goalkeeper (2001)

Emily Huyck was named an NSCAA/adidas second-team all-America in 2001 after leading the nation with an 0.38 goals against average as the Bulldogs earned their first-ever home game in the NCAA Division II post-season tournament. She shut out a Truman record of 43 opponents from 1998-01.

Huyck played a little more than 5,869 minutes in goal for the ‘Dogs during her tenure, the second-most ever by a Bulldog goalkeeper. Unfortunately, she saw limited action as a freshman in another outstanding Truman netminder, Jenny Miller.

Huyck allowed just eight goals in her final season, but limited opponents to seven goals in 1999, tying the school record set by Miller the previous season.

Huyck left her name in many places in the Truman, MIAA and NCAA record books, and shares the Division II standard for single season solo shutout percentage (0.74) after holding 14 of 19 teams scoreless in 1999.

JOCelyn PARISI

2nd Team Midfielder (1997)

In 1997, the soccer team had several firsts. Not only did it advance to the playoffs for the first time in school history, but a Bulldog was named all-America for the first time. Forward Jocelyn Parisi was named the NSCAA/Umber first-team all-America list following Truman’s postseason run. She was also named NSCAA/Umber’s first-team all-Central region along with teammate Kim Mannion.

In ’97, Parisi moved forward from the midfield where she played during her freshman and sophomore seasons. She scored 15 points on four goals and seven assists during her first two seasons. As a junior, Parisi posted career highs in every category.

She ended her career in 1998 with 76 games played, 156 shots, nine goals, 19 assists and 37 points. Her 19 career assists ties her for fifth all-time at Truman, and Parisi’s 156 shots are the fourth-highest career total by a Bulldog. Parisi is tied for second among Truman career leaders in games played and is ninth in points.
The NSCAA sponsors a Scholar All-America and Scholar All-region teams to honor academic excellence in the sport. In 2002, College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) adopted the Academic All-America program for women’s soccer. First-team selections in each of the Sports Information Director’s districts are eligible for the national award. Prior to 2002, women’s soccer was part of the at-large Academic All-America program.
