utes and threatened in the 85th minute, but couldn’t swim up in the middle, forced the teams to play wide. Spectators looking on, Wesleyan’s offense heated up. A ‘Dogs in the quarterfinals. This time, it was rain and and slowed action.

Late in the second half the Toeplykowski sisters, Carre and Stephanie, broke through with the only goal of the match. Less than ideal conditions again plagued the team as the match started late due to wind and snow. The first round gave the Bulldogs a chance to avenge a defeat at the hands St. Joseph’s College which won the No. 1 seed in the Central region after beating the ‘Dogs 2-1 earlier in the season.

The 1997 squad was the first team in school history to qualify for the NCAA Tournament, after a couple of near misses. The first round gave the Bulldogs a chance to average a defeat at the hands St. Joseph’s College which won the No. 1 seed in the Central region after beating the ‘Dogs 2-1 earlier in the season.

The weather provided an extra opponent for each team as the match started late due to wind and snow. Nov. 19, 1997 @ St. Joseph’s (Ind.) W 1-0
Nov. 22, 1997 @ W. Va. Wesleyan L 0-1

The Bulldogs returned to the postseason in 2001, and earned a pair of home games after finishing the regular season as the No. 1 seed in the Central region. Truman began its second postseason run with a re-match with Northern Colorado, a team that handed the ‘Dogs their first loss (1-0) of the ‘01 campaign in game five that year.

However, the home pitch proved more successful for the Bulldogs who sent UNC heading west with a 2-0 victory. True freshman Anne Sondemand performed the heroics in the 95th minute with help from junior Kelli Best. The stingy Truman defense held Northern Colorado to three shots on goal as senior goaliekeeper Emily Huyck recorded her 14th shutout of the year.

Unfortunately, the Bulldogs were not as lucky in the quarterfinal game as Northern Kentucky ended their season by a 2-0 score with both goals coming early in the game. The Truman defense clamped down in the second half, allowing just one shot on goal, while the ‘Dogs’ offense forced the NKU keeper to make six of her eight saves.

UNO awaited the Bulldogs.

Nov. 14, 2003 @ Nebraska-Omaha L 1-3

For the third consecutive year, the Bulldogs again used their strong regular season showing to propel themselves into the National Tournament. Once again, Nebraska-Omaha was the destination and the Mavericks of UNO awaited the Bulldogs.

After an early neutral site loss to UNO back in September in which the Bulldogs were shutout 2-0, the team came into the match with an 18 game unbeaten streak and a 12 game winning streak.

Eleven minutes into the game, junior Sara Murray hit the back of the net off a pass from junior Stephanie Cepicky to give Truman a 1-0 lead. Ten minutes later, UNO tied the score on a goal by Ashley Grace.

Following a halftime intermission with the teams knotted at one, UNO’s Haley Fries burst the Bulldog national championship dreams with a goal in the 66th minute.

In the 87th minute, Jessica Dotson added an insurance goal to allow UNO to advance to the second round with a 3-1 victory over Truman.

Truman finished the season with an impressive 18-2-1 record with both losses at the hands of UNO.

The Maversscks exacted revenge in the regional by scoring twice in the first 30 minutes en route to a 3-0 win. Truman managed just six shots (three on goal) as the squad ended their season with a 15-7-1 record.

Nov. 12, 2004 vs. South Dakota W 3-1
Nov. 14, 2004 vs. Nebraska-Omaha L 1-2 ot

After an unbeaten regular season, the Truman soccer team hosted the NCAA Divison II Central regional tournament at the Truman Soccer Park.

In the opening game of the tournament, the Bulldogs wasted little time in getting on the board. Sara Murray scored just 0.59 seconds into the game against South Dakota.

The Coyotes even the score at the 22 minute mark only to watch the Bulldog tack on two more goals before half for a 3-1 lead. Stephanie Cepicky had the game winner at the 29 minute mark, while Annie Sonderman added the insurance goal in the 41st minute.

The Bulldogs advanced to play Nebraska-Omaha for the regional championship game. It marked the third straight time the two teams had faced each other in the national tournament.

The Mavericks struck first with a goal in the 38th minute and took a 1-0 lead into halftime.

Robyn Mortonson knotied the goal at one with an unassisted goal in the 66th minute.

Truman kept the pressure on but couldn’t get the game winner in regulation.

UNO brought the season to a crashing halt with a goal that just hit the inside of the post three minutes into overtime for the win.

It was Truman’s only loss in the season.

Nov. 9, 2007 vs. Nebraska-Omaha L 0-3

In 2002, UNC was again to be Truman’s first postseason hurdle. And again the Bulldogs dispensed of the Bear 1-0.

The ‘Dogs took two shots on goal in the first half to the Bears’ four, and Truman goalie Lisa Schmalz made four of her five saves in that period. Schmalz claimed her 11th shutout of the year in all 90 minutes of work.

Truman scored when junior Angie Schuhler sent the ball down the right side to senior forward Becky Ojile who got it up to sophomore forward Ellen Wright for the header.

The No. 3 seed, Truman would now face the top seed in the Central region and third-ranked team in the nation, Nebraska-Omaha. UNO dominated both offensively and defensively in its 3-0 victory, allowing the Bulldogs seven shots for the game, and just one on goal. The Mavs went on to fall just one game short of national title.
