Weekly's Match-Up:

The Truman men’s basketball team will be looking to pick up a much-needed road victory on Wednesday night as they face rival Northwest Missouri.

Northwest Missouri has won two of its last three games and is currently second in the MIAA standings. The Bears have a strong perimeter game, led by senior guard Mike Atkinson, who averages 18.2 points per game.

Truman is coming off a loss to Emporia State last week, but the Bulldogs are confident in their ability to compete against the Bears. The team is led by junior guard Hunter Henry, who averages 14.0 points per game and has scored 20 points in three of the past four games.

This will be the Bulldogs first home game in nearly two weeks. The team is hoping to gain confidence and momentum from a successful season, and they will be looking to build on their recent success against the Bears.

The Bulldogs are also looking to gain a key victory to move up in the MIAA standings and secure a playoff berth. The team will need to play with energy and intensity to compete against the Bears, who are a tough opponent. Both teams have strong backcourts and are well-coached, so it should be a close game.

Overall, the Bulldogs are looking forward to the challenge and are ready to compete against Northwest Missouri. They have the talent and experience to compete with the Bears, and they will be looking to put in a strong performance on Wednesday night.

MIAA Standings Glance:
The Bulldogs find themselves two games back of a playoff spot in the MIAA postseason tournament. Truman and Missouri Western are tied with 3-9 league marks and trail Pittsburg State and Washburn, who are tied with 5-7 records.

After tonight’s game, the Bulldogs will have finished playing the top four teams in the league and will play their next two against Washburn and Missouri Western.

Southwest Baptist is the first team to punch their ticket to the MIAA Championships and have a one-game lead over Missouri Southern in the standings.

The top eight teams will advance to the MIAA championships to be held at Municipal Auditorium on March 7-9.

Series History w/Northwest Missouri:
Northwest leads the all-time series between the two schools 94-89 and have won eight of the past 10 games played.

The longest winning streak in the series belongs to Truman as they reeled off 18 straight from 1951 to 1960.

Truman’s last win in the series was their last win at Bearcat Arena. The Bulldogs pulled out a 76-71 victory over Northwest on Feb. 1st 2006 behind Austin Kirby’s seven three-pointers.

Coach Jack Schrader:
Head Coach Jack Schrader is the third longest tenured coach in Bulldog history and is in his 13th season on the bench. Truman has had only three men’s basketball coaches since 1946 with Boyd King (25 years), Willard Sims (24 years) and Schrader (13 years) leading the team since World War II.

Schrader has a 75-144 record in conference games and a 146-207 mark overall. He is a graduate of Arizona State University. Truman is 19-15 in the last two MIAA campaigns, including a trip to the NCAA South Central regional in 2006 and two trips to the MIAA postseason tournament.

Senior Nick Certa:
Nick Certa will become the 22nd player in Truman history to score 1,000 career points with six more points. He is two away from passing Xavi Cargo for the career scoring list.

Certa’s 116 three-pointers has moved him into 10th all-time in school history.

Bulldog Tip-Ins:

• Freshman Alex Henderson has averaged 7.2 points in conference games this year. Henderson is the team’s top free throw shooter, hitting 29-of-31 (93%) including a perfect 10-of-10 in the final five minutes and overtime.

Up Next:
Three of the final five conference games left this season will be back in Pershing Arena including Saturday’s contest with Washburn University.

Truman lost 59-50 to the Ichabods earlier this season in Topeka but need a win to keep their tournament hopes alive.

Saturday will be a special day in Pershing Arena, as the Bulldogs will join the women’s team in honoring Breast Cancer survivors and raising awareness for the disease in the “Think Pink” game. Fans can get free admission by wearing pink clothing that afternoon.

Last Time Out

- Feb. 9, 2008 - The Bulldog men’s basketball team couldn’t pull off a season sweep of conference-leading Southwest Baptist Saturday, as the host Bearcats avenged a loss two weeks ago in Kirkville with a 76-66 win against Truman in Bolivar. Senior guard Nick Certa had team-best 15 points and 12 rebounds to pace the Bulldogs.

- Despite holding the conference’s best three-point shooting team to well below its season average, the Bulldogs couldn’t convert often enough on the offensive end to hang with the balanced Bearcat attack. Nick Kovacevich led all scorers with 18 points, while guard D’Ante Harris added 16. Jim Grabowski, the MIAA’s fourth-best scorer, was held in check by the Bulldog defense, as he tallied only eight points in 39 minutes of work.

- The Bulldogs (4-17, 3-9 MIAA) trailed by just three at halftime after scoring only three points in the game’s opening four minutes as SBU couldn’t find the range from beyond the arc. The Bearcats, averaging 10.42 made three-pointers per game, hit only two long-range bombs for the entire contest, but made up for it by outscoring Truman 48-16 in the paint and converting 25 points off 15 Truman turnovers.

- Truman led by as many as six with just over 13 minutes left in the ball game, but SBU (17-4, 10-2) slowly clawed back into the contest - eventually tying the score at 56 with eight minutes remaining. A Kovacevich three-pointer on the Bearcats’ next possession marked the final lead change of the afternoon.

- In addition to Certa’s 15 points, three other Bulldogs finished in double-figures. Freshman guard Alex Henderson had 14 points, while junior forward Patrick Fandja added 12 and five rebouds. Junior guard Banks Estridge finished with 11 points, five rebounds, two assists and two steals in 36 minutes.

Northwest Missouri Last Five Games

Recent Results

- Jan. 22, 2008 – The Northwest Missouri Bearcats used their stingy defense to take home a 64-50 victory over the Truman Bulldogs on Wednesday night in Pershing Arena. Nick Certa led the Bulldogs with 15 points.

- Northwest shot 56% from beyond the arc hitting 9-of-16, six in the first half, which was the difference in the ball game. Truman connected on just 2-of-12 three-pointers but shot 52% from the field.

- Truman would get as Elijah Allen scored back to back with 14:34 to play and cut the Bearcat lead down to five at 38-33.

- Andrais Thornton extended the lead back to seven until Patrick Fandja scored two of his 15 points to get the Bulldogs back to within five.

- However, that would be the closest Truman would get as Elijah Allen scored five straight to push the lead back to double figures.

- Stefan Garrison and Fandja scored on back-to-back possessions to make the score 45-39 but Allen converted on a pair of free throws and Mose Howard and Mike Larsen put the game out of reach with baskets, the last of which was a triple.
