This Week’s Games:
The Truman men’s basketball team will play in the Quincy Holiday Tournament on Saturday and Sunday this week. The Bulldogs were the tournament champions of this tournament the last time they competed in the tournament during the 2005-06 season.

The Bulldogs will renew their annual rivalry with Quincy in Saturday’s game, and will take on #3 South Dakota in the second game. Lincoln University is the fourth team in the tournament and will not be an opponent of Truman.

The ’Dogs are coming off an 86-45 victory over Central Christian (Mo.) last Saturday in Pershing Arena to pick up their first win of the season.

Truman has had only three men’s basketball coaches since 1946

Series History w/Quincy:
• By sweeping both of last year’s meetings, the Hawks currently own a 52-50 advantage over the Bulldogs in the all-time series record.
• Truman’s last win in the series came in Pepsi Arena at the Holiday tournament in 2005. The Bulldogs dropped the Hawks 81-77 in overtime.
• Coach Jack Schrader is 7-11 against Quincy during his time as coach of the Bulldogs.
• The first meeting with the Hawks was also during the first season of Truman basketball. The Bulldogs won 23-11 during the 1919-20 campaign, although Quincy didn’t officially start basketball until the 1940-41 season.
• There have been five overtime games played with three coming since 2002.

Series History w/South Dakota:
• This is the third meeting between the two schools with the Coyotes winning all three games.
• The first meeting occurred at the Nebraska-Omaha tournament in the 2004-05 season with USD prevailing 80-68.
• South Dakota and Truman played earlier this season in Vermillion over the Thanksgiving break again with USD winning 69-46.

Truman Men’s Basketball

Game 7 & 8 @ Quincy Holiday Tournament Dec. 15-16, 2007 Quincy, Ill.

- Dave Boots is in his 21st year on the bench for the Coyotes and coming into this weekend’s action has posted a 409-156 record at the school.
- Boots has 525 career victories and is sixth on the NCAA Division II all-time coaching victories list.

Non-Conference Schedule Tidbits:
- The Bulldogs have one of the toughest non-conference schedules in the MIAA. Truman has seven of their nine games against Division II opponents. Only two other MIAA schools have as many DII opponents during the non-conference season, Emporia State and Missouri Western. The fewest DII opponents on an MIAA schedule is four shared by three teams, Missouri Southern, Pittsburg State and Fort Hays State.
- In the past two years, Truman is 16-10 during the non-conference portion of their schedule. Truman played their first four games on the road this non-conference season and seven of the nine games away from Pershing Arena.
- This is the third tournament the Bulldogs have played in during the non-conference season. Truman opened the season at the Minnesota State-Mankato Tip-off classic before playing in the South Dakota Thanksgiving tournament.
- Truman will close out the non-conference portion of their schedule against future Division I opponent, Southern Illinois University Edwardsville on Dec. 19th.

Last Time Out:
- Dec. 8, 2007 – Six Bulldogs scored in double figures as Truman handed Central Christian (Mo.) an 86-45 defeat at Pershing Arena on Saturday afternoon.
- Truman jumped on the Saints early scoring 15 of the first 18 points of the contest and eventually built up a 31-point lead in the period. Central Christian scored five straight before the end of the half to cut the deficit to 49-23.
- Nick Certa and Patrick Fandja scored 12 and 10 points respectively in the half, while Banks Estridge added nine points with three assists and two steals.
- In the second half, Alex Henderson, Vesko Filchev and Mark Misiewicz picked up the scoring for Truman.
- Henderson was a perfect 3-of-3 in the half all coming from long range to finish with 11, while Filchev hit 5-of-8 from the field with seven rebounds. Filchev scored 10 points in his first major action of the season.
- Misiewicz scored seven of his 11 points in the half and pulled down six boards.
- The Bulldogs shot 52% from the field in the game and out rebounded the Saints 50-30.
- De ‘Ronte’ Polite scored a game-high 20 points and Justin Crain added 14 for the Saints.

A Quick Look At The ‘Dogs:
- The Bulldogs are averaging 61.5 ppg while allowing opponents 62.3 ppg.
- Truman is ranked fifth in the MIAA in scoring defense, defense field goal percentage (.390), defensive three-point field goal percentage (.325) and second in defensive rebounds (28.5/game).
- Truman has been cold from outside to start the game (21%) but their three-point field goal percentage jumps to 34% in the second half.
- On the flip side, the opposing teams make 45% of their treys in the first half but only 17% in the second.
- Nick Certa leads the Bulldogs in scoring at 14.0 ppg and also leads the team in three-pointers made with 10. He is currently 12th in the MIAA in scoring.
- Banks Estridge is second on the team at 10.3 points per game and leads the team with 23 assists.
- Estridge is fifth in the conference in assists per game at 3.83 and sixth in assist/turnover ratio at 2.30.
- Patrick Fandja is the MIAA’s leading rebounder at 8.7 boards per game. Of his 8.7 boards, 6.6 of them have come on the defensive end of the court.
- Fandja is eighth in the MIAA in free throw percentage at 78%. He has made 18-of-23 attempts.
- Ethan Freeman is Truman’s leading freshman scorer at 7.8 ppg. Freeman is second on the team in assists and has been to the line more than any other Bulldogs. Unfortunately, Freeman is struggling at the charity stripe, going 13-for-27 in the early going.
- Vesko Filchev saw his first significant action of the season against Central Christian on Saturday. Filchev played 16 of the 20 minutes in the second half and was 5-of-8 from the field with seven rebounds.

Scouting Quincy:
- The Hawks won their first two games of the season against Hannibal La-Grange (86-52) and Culver-Stockton (105-88) before dropping their next four.
- Quincy has played and lost to two other MIAA opponents, Missouri Western (75-67) and Southwest Baptist (86-77).
- Andre Muse is the Hawks’ and Great Lakes Valley conference leading scorer at 26.2 ppg and has been the teams leading scoring in five of their six games.
- Muse scored a season-high 37 points against Culver-Stockton and shoots 50% from beyond the arc.
- Cameron Murkey (11.3) and Austin Chapital (10.8) are the other Hawks averaging double figures in scoring.
- Quincy is averaging 83 ppg while allowing 79.2.

Last Time vs. Quincy:
- Dec. 22, 2006 - Quincy took a 12-point lead into the locker room but watched as the Bulldogs stormed back to take a three-point lead midway through the period. Quincy then went on a 18-5 run and eventually won the game.
- Both teams were blistering the nets to start the contest with Truman shooting 83% and the Hawks with 85% through the first media timeout. Quincy would go on a 9-2 run and take a nine-point lead and extended the margin to as many as 14 points with 3:22 to go in the half. A Travis Kern three-pointer, his third of the period gave the Bulldogs some spark heading into the locker room.
- In the second half it was all Bulldogs through the first nine minutes. Truman outscored the Hawks 24-9, and kept them scoreless for a four minute span to take a three-point lead at 58-55.
- However, once the Hawks broke the drought, they raced back with their own 18-5 run and... claimed a 10-point lead with 4:43 to play. Nick Certa and Grant Agbo scored on back-to-back possessions to cut the lead to five but Andre Muse drained a three and made a free throw off a hand-check foul to extend the margin back to nine.

Certa again struck with a triple to cut it back to six and Truman looked to regain possession after a triple-team on Muse but a timeout was called before the held ball, which would have given the ball back to the Bulldogs. On the ensuing inbound play, Ryan Walker walked in all alone for the dunk and foul to put the game out of reach.

Certa led the Bulldogs with 19 points, Andy Calmes followed with 15 points and Agbo chipped in 14. Calmes passed Floyd McMillon for seventh all-time in rebounding with 716 career boards during the contest.

Truman shot 51.6% for the game and 57% from outside. The Bulldogs were 6-of-8 from the foul line.

Quincy was 56% from the field and led by Muse’s 27 points and Joel Box’s 24 points. The Hawks were 42% from outside and were 28-of-33 at the line for 84%.

Scouting South Dakota:
• The Coyotes are 8-0 on the season (before Saturday’s game with Lincoln University at the Quincy Tournament) and are currently ranked third in the latest NABC Division II national poll.
• Dylan Grimsley is South Dakota’s leading scorer at 15.9 ppg and is followed closely by Eric Hall at 14.3 ppg.
• Grimsley shoots 54% from the field, including over 60% from outside and is over 70% at the free throw line.
• Mitch Begeman comes off the bench to average 11.0 points per game.
• Tyler Cain has 43 blocks in the first eight games this season and leads the Coyotes in rebounding at 7.3 a game. In all, USD has blocked 66 shots and have only had 16 of their shots blocked.
• The Coyotes have outscored their opponents by 133 points (16 per game) in the first half so far this season.

Up Next:
• Truman will wrap up the 2007 and non-conference portion of their schedule with a trip to Southern Illinois University Edwardsville on Wednesday Dec. 19th.
• The two teams last met during the 2001-02 season with the Cougars winning 79-67 in Edwardsville.
• The Bulldogs hold a 12-10 advantage over SIUE.
