Match 17

TRUMAN BULLDOGS

12-3-1, 8-3-1 MIAA

vs. Mo. Southern (Sat., Oct. 25; 2:00 PM)

This Week:
Although the Truman women’s soccer team dropped to #2 in the regional rankings behind Central Missouri, the Bulldogs enter the week on a three-match win streak and will look to make it four-in-a-row on Saturday against Missouri Southern.

About the Lions:
On the heels of a three-game losing streak, Missouri Southern looks to right the ship as they head into the final stretch of the season. The Lions most recently lost a 1-0 nailbiter to the top team in the conference, #10 Central Missouri, in Warrensburg.

Offensively, the Lions struggle a bit, and they’re only averaging 1.38 goals per game. Nikki Llewellyn is fourth in the MIAA with eight goals scored and is averaging 2.92 shots in each contest.

In the back, freshman keeper Randi Russell has 52 saves this season and a 1.84 goals-against average.

Bulldog Review:
After dropping two tough MIAA contests, the Bulldogs caught fire and started another win streak thanks to blistering offensive production. After dispatching Northwest Missouri and Missouri Western, Jessica Wiegert scored a hat trick and the Truman tallied three goals in fifteen minutes to down Nebraska-Omaha on Monday and successfully wrap up a stretch of three matches in five days with a trio of wins.

Overall, Katie Reuck leads the squad with eight goals and four assists, and fellow juniors Wiegert and Riley Mahn are right behind with seven scores and three feeds each.

Reuck Named Player of the Week:
Junior women’s soccer midfielder Katie Reuck was named the MIAA Offensive Player of the Week on Monday by the conference office. It’s the first time Reuck has received the award in 2008.

Reuck, a 5-foot-3 junior from Jacksonville, Ill., scored two goals -- including the go-ahead marker -- as the then-No. 25 Bulldog women’s soccer team earned a 3-2 win at Northwest Missouri State Thursday (Oct. 16).

She scored an unassisted goal in the 77th minute to break a 2-2 tie, less than 10 minutes after Riley Mahn knotted the game. It was her seventh goal of the season, and fourth game-winning score of 2008.

Reuck’s first tally of the match came in the 40th minute -- a shot to the top left corner -- which allowed the Bulldogs to go to the halftime break tied at 1-1.

Active players in bold

She received all-MIAA first-team honors in 2007 and was also the offensive player of the week nearly one year ago on Oct. 22, 2007.

Head Coach Mike Cannon:
Cannon picked up his 200th win in the team’s first match of the year against Quincy and is the winningest coach in Truman women’s soccer history at 211-75-26 (.718). Entering 2008, he was ranked seventh in victories among active Division II coaches and is in his 16th season at the helm.

Cannon’s teams have won eight of the nine MIAA titles the conference has offered and have been to the NCAA post-season six times. His 2007 squad captured the MIAA conference tournament title in the only year of its existence after sharing the regular season championship.

Last Time Out:
Thursday, October 16: W 3-2 at Northwest Missouri
Saturday, October 18: W 2-0 vs. Missouri Western Monday, October 20: W 4-1 vs. Nebraska-Omaha

Series Info:
Truman vs. Missouri Southern (Truman leads all-time series 12-2-3).
This Season: Truman won 3-1 in Joplin on Sept. 25.

Up Next:
In the midst of a six-game home stretch to end the season, the Bulldogs will welcome in Washburn next Thursday for an afternoon contest. The following Saturday, Central Missouri rolls into town for a clash of the conference’s two top teams. Kickoff for the Senior Day game is slated for noon at the Truman Soccer Park.
