Ben Briney
Camp Director, Head Volleyball Coach

Ben Briney was appointed the new head coach of the Truman State University volleyball team after serving as the program's assistant since 2005. He became the ninth head coach in program history.

In his first season as head coach, he led a young Bulldog squad to a 24-13 record and an at-large bid to the NCAA National Tournament. The Bulldogs remained nationally ranked the entire season.

Briney also coached Megan Sharpe to the school's second AVCA National Freshman of the Year award and an AVCA Honorable Mention All-America award.

During his time as an assistant, the Bulldogs went 137-22, twice made the National Quarterfinals, and reached National Semifinals in 2008. Overall, Briney has coached 7 different players to 12 All-America Awards.

Megan Wargo
Assistant Camp Director, Truman Assistant Coach

Megan Wargo joined the Truman volleyball squad in the fall of 2009 after spending the past four seasons as the assistant coach for both the women's and men's volleyball programs at Lees-McRae (N.C.) College.

Lees-McRae, a Div. II institution located in Banner Elk, N.C., reached the NCAA women's tournament three times with Wargo serving as the program's assistant and won three straight Conference Carolinas tournament championships.

The Bobcats women's program compiled a 101-46 record during her four-year tenure at the program, while Wargo helped guide an upstart men's program to a 13-4 record in 2006 and a 19-5 record in 2009.

Individual Camp

Each team will have one practice with a college coach and then the opportunity to compete in a camp tournament. Teams must have a minimum of 8 players per team. One coach per 8 players will be free. If a team brings a second coach and does not have 8 more players, that team will be responsible to pay $100 to cover the basic camp costs.

Both Camps

This is the opportunity to come to camp for a whole week. If you attend both camps, your total cost is discounted. This is a great price for a week of camp.
