TRUMAN BULLDOGS 7-1, 0-0 MIAA

at CONCORDIA-ST. PAUL

“RADISSON-ROSEVILLE TOURNAMENT”

Friday & Saturday, September 12-13
Gangelhoff Center, St. Paul, Minn.

Tournament Preview:

The fifth-ranked Truman volleyball squad will wrap up the major portion of its nonconference slate this weekend, as the Bulldogs travel to the Twin Cities for four out-of-region matches — two featuring top-15 programs.

The Bulldogs are coming off a 3-1 weekend at the UNK Fall Classic in Kearney, Neb., but ended up dropping only two spots in the latest CBS College Sports Network/AVCA top-25 poll — sliding from third to fifth in this week’s release.

Despite not playing a single regional match this weekend, Truman will certainly still be challenged in perhaps their most difficult weekend of the season to date. The Bulldogs will open the tournament against Central Washington University, a GNAC school located in Ellensburg, Washington. The Wildcats are 7-1 on the season and currently sport a four-match win streak after sweeping through their own tournament last weekend.

Truman will then play its biggest match of the nonconference season Friday night, as the Bulldogs take on the host CSP Golden Bears — last season’s National Champions — at 7:30 pm. Concordia, currently ranked third in the top-25 poll, lost just one senior from last season’s championship squad and also have compiled a 7-1 record so far this season.

The Golden Bears are hitting .293 as a team and have five players averaging more than 2.3 kills/set in 2008. CSP is coming off a perfect 4-0 weekend and a first-place finish at the Premier Classic last weekend in Denver, Colo.

On Saturday, Truman will make an early wake-up call for an 11:00 a.m. match against Alaska-Anchorage. UAA is 7-2 on the season, marking the second-best start in school history. However, the Seawolves will be challenged throughout the weekend, as they will face all four teams in the Classic that are currently ranked in the top-20 (Truman, CSP, SMSU & Augustana).

Then, for the first time all season, Truman will turn around and face a second ranked squad during the weekend, as the No. 13 Mustangs of Southwest Minnesota State (7-1) await for an afternoon showdown. The match certainly will be decided at the net with both programs currently averaging more than two blocks per set.

Overall, Truman’s opponents this weekend bring a combined 28-5 record into play at the Gangelhoff Center in St. Paul. Action begins at 9:00 a.m. each morning and runs through Concordia’s 7:30 p.m. match both Friday and Saturday nights.

Live Stats Available for Fans:

A tournament Web site has been created at www.cugoldenbears.com that will provide both live stats and video for free throughout the entire tournament.

A link to the site will also be available for fans on the Truman Volleyball Schedule page.
