About the Hornets:
Emporia State (23-2, 9-1 MIAA), currently the top team in the South Central Region, ventures to Kirksville for Wednesday night’s match off a 1-1 weekend which included a 3-0 loss at Washburn on Oct. 17. Prior to that loss, the Hornets had rattled off 19 consecutive wins, setting a new program-record. The gold and black are led by junior outside hitter Arica Shepard, a 2007 all-American. Shepard sports a team-high 3.81 kills/set and is hitting .322 on the season. Sophomore Ting Liu crossed the 1,000 assist mark for the season (nine) after their longest streak (12) was snapped back on Sept. 19.

About the Lady Blues:
Entering play Tuesday night at Northwest Missouri, the No. 7 Lady Blues (23-2, 8-2 MIAA) have pieced together their second longest winning streak of the season (nine) after their longest streak (12) was snapped back on Sept. 19 in a 3-2 Truman win in Kirksville. The Bulldogs will face a talented Shepard for the second straight contest, as Emporia’s Arica’s twin sister, Ashley, currently leads the Lady Blues with a 3.07 kills/set mark. Both Monica Meisner and Mallie Lacey have started all 25 matches for Washburn in 2008 and each also put down nearly three kills/set.

Junior setter Kate Hampson sits just a shade under ten assists/set, while Stephanie Nitz’s 1.08 blocks/set average is a team-high.

Chris Herron is in his seventh season at WU and has a 207-40 career record.

About the Tigers:

Quick Hits:
The Bulldogs have been ranked in the CBS College Sports Network/AVCA top-25 121 consecutive times dating back to the first regular season poll in 2000.
- Truman is 45-10 in sets decided by five or more points and is a perfect 16-0 in matches after going up two sets to none.
- The Bulldogs are a combined 19-1 in three and five set matches in 2008 but are 2-4 when matches go just four sets.
- Truman boasts a 21-1 record when its opponents hit .249 or worse for the match. Anything higher than .250 has spelled disaster for the ‘Dogs in 2008, as foes are 4-0 against the purple and white if they hit above that mark.
- The Bulldogs have won three of their last four matches against top-25 opponents to improve to 4-5 on the season against ranked foes.

Chart Watch:
- After Melissa Keck surpassed the 1,000 kill mark for her career against Missouri Western on Saturday, Allie Cherven is next in line for the milestone with 917 career kills.
- Keck (.322) and Cherven (.321) also sit 1-2 in career hitting percentage, but won’t be there long, as Lisa Weber needs just five more attempts to become eligible for the list. Weber, currently at 995 career attempts, is a career-.332 hitter.
- Eli Medina needs just one more double-digit dig match to reach 100 for her career. Medina is also just 26 kills away from sole possession of 8th on Truman’s all-time kills list.
- Whitney Boehler still currently sports the best digs per set average in Truman history at 3.63 digs/set. She currently leads Satoko Miyame, who set a 4.30 mark in the pre-rally scoring era (1990-1993).

There’s No Place Like Home:
Since the start of the 2000 season, Truman volleyball has compiled a 101-10 (.910) mark in home contests – having dropped more than two matches at home in a season only once (2003; 13-3).
This season, combining matches at the Kirksville Primary School and Pershing Arena, the Bulldogs are a perfect 4-0 and look to match the only unblemished home marks since 2000, set in 2001 (17-0) and 2004 (14-0).

Up Next:
Truman will travel to Southwest Baptist on Tuesday (Oct. 28) night before returning home to kick off a stretch of five home matches out of six to wrap up the regular season with a Halloween night match against Missouri Southern and a Saturday evening (Nov. 1) match against 15th-ranked Pittsburg State.
